"These addresses are brief, pointed, eminently practical. Mr. Elliot is well known in this community as an accomplished expounder of the Word of God, and with the gift of saying much in little, much meaning, few words. This is the characteristic of these addresses which we most cordially commend to the thoughtful reader. We confess to be reminded by these brief and terse discourses of our dear old favourite, John Foster."—Presbyterian (Halifax) Witness.

"Clear in thought, correct in expression, and cogent in argument and appeal."—Halifax Chronicle
