

"THE YOUNG FRIENDS' REVIEW" a permanent thing to neglect not the time of opportunity. Are the majority of our members willing to permit the earnest endeavor and worthy projects put forth in behalf of our Society to starve, to die, for the want of a little support and encouragement? We believe they are not if they understand the situation and this we have endeavored honestly to lay before them.

Dear Friend, a little thoughtfulness and a little prompt action just now, prompted by thy present kindly and generous feelings may help to sustain and even advance THE REVIEW, and through it may help to sustain and even advance the Society.
