P. G. MCGREGOR, Treasurer.

The Halifax Womans F. M. Society has eight auxiliaries, at the following places, Pictou, Stellarton, Green Hill, Upper Stewiacke, Durham (West River,) Antigonish, Merigomish, Windsor.

Any small balances that are still due on last year (1883) will be thankfully received as I wish to hand over to the Foreign Mission Fund the amount remaining, after all expenses are paid.—Ed.

Rev. H. A. Robertson is spending some weeks in visiting congregations and addressing meetings in Col. Cum. and Pictou Counties. He is holding several meetings each week involving much of toil and work. We know that he will get a warm welcome wherever he goes and a deeper interest will be felt in him and his mission as he tells the most interesting and thrilling story of what God hath wrought in his own island and throughout the South Seas.

Last spring when Mr. Morton came home, he laid before the Foreign Mission Board the statement of the Mission Council of Trinidad, representing the urgent need of a church at Princetown, where Mr. McLeod is now settled; also the debt resting on the buildings at Tunapuna, his own station. He was authorized by the Board to appeal for aid for these special objects, and to raise if possible one thousand dollars for each. He received from individuals and at meetings about one thousand dollars. He generously devoted the whole of this amount to the church at Princetown. And after all his labor the debt still remains on the buildings in his own district at Tunapuna. If any one has the means and the will to give special donations outside the regular Fund, this is one of the most needful and worthy objects in the field.

The sympathies of the Church will go out towards Mr. Mackenzie on the island of Efate. He returned to his field from
