

The women doctors of Toronto, who have been working steadily for years to secure a hospital, have now opened one at 125 Rusholme Road. It has 21 beds.

Dr. Francis Delafield, of New York, a distinguished physician and pathologist, an author of many standard medical works, and consulting physician at the illness of President McKinley, following the latter's assassination, died 17th July.

A Winnipeg jury brought in a verdict of guilty against Dr. Russell Dumas, who was charged with using instruments unlawfully. Mr. Justice Metcalf sentenced him to five years in the penitentiary.

Dr. Montague, former Minister of Public Works for Manitoba, has received orders to report to the director-general of the Canadian medical department at London for service. He has been given the rank of major, with the honorary rank of colonel.

Toronto dentists have made the very generous offer of attending to the teeth of those enlisting, and, when necessary, supplying artificial teeth free of charge.

At a meeting of the Women's College Hospital and Dispensary, held in the new quarters, 125 Rusholme Road, Dr. Geraldine Oakley, of Northampton Hospital, Northampton, Mass., was appointed medical superintendent, and Miss Florence Martin, assistant superintendent. Dr. Oakley is a graduate of the University of Toronto of 1912. The new hospital will be opened shortly.

Lieut. J. W. S. McCullough, who is in charge of the sanitation at Niagara camp, has been promoted to the rank of major as a reward for his work. Major McCullough was Provincial Health Officer and qualified as a lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps after the war broke out.

Major G. H. Wilson, M.D., has been appointed to examine those who go to the training camp at Niagara, as soon as they arrive after being passed by the local examiners. This would avoid going on with training and later on be found unfit for service abroad.

Dr. Velyien Ewart Henderson, M.A., M.B., of the medical faculty of the University of Toronto, has received an appointment from the militia as head of the Alien prisoners' detention camp at Kapuskasing, Ontario.

Militia orders announce the promotion of Lieut.-Col. G. S. Ryerson, of Toronto, to be honorary surgeon-general.

Mr. Irving H. Cameron, professor of surgery in the University of Toronto, accepted the position tendered to him by the British Government. He has been appointed honorary visiting surgeon on the staff of the King George Hospital, Red Cross and the Order of St. John of