CAMP FUND.

WE acknowledge receipt of $5 from James Lesslie, Esq. Five more such contributions will clear off the balance due. Please think about it. We believe souls were saved during the meetings held, and many more kept from temptation through the attractions offered at our tent.

EVANGELISTIC.

DURING the past week we have been favored with the presence and assistance of several earnest workers from the Old Land. Mr. George Williams, of Glasgow (formerly an actor by profession) and Messrs. Montgomery, Irwin and Shaw, of Dublin, en route for the Conference at Northfield, remained over with us for three or four days. On Saturday evening there was a good attendance at our Young Men's Meeting. On Sunday afternoon and evening Shaftesbury Hall was well filled by an attentive audience, and earnest addresses were given by the brethren named. Meetings were also held on Monday and Tuesday evenings, with a fair attendance. The Monday evening meeting was one of much interest. We have reason to hope that seed has been sown which shall ultimately bring forth fruit to the glory of God.

IT is with pleasure we learn that our comment upon "dramatic performances and other ungodly and unchristian-like" entertainments in connection with our Associations, meets the approval of many of our Brother Secretaries. We have received several cards, expressing their oneness with us in this matter. We are pleased at this, but were it otherwise—were all against us, we consider it would be none the less our duty to protest against such entertainments.

DR. BONAR.

THE adage, "It never rains but it pours" certainly had some meaning during the past week. In addition to the brethren named in another column, the Lord sent into our midst His honored and venerable servant, Dr. Andrew Bonar, of Glasgow. During his visit the Doctor preached to large audiences on the Sabbath, and on Monday he addressed a children's meeting in St. James' Square Church. On Wednesday afternoon he gave a Bible Reading on the "Second coming of our Lord," when our parlor was crowded, many having to stand.
