DR. C. M'LANE'S
CELEBRATED
LIVER PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he easily starved, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and though he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

Dr. C. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL.

PRESBYTERIAN YEAR BOOK & ALMANAC
(FOR THE YEAR 1875),
And to be continued Yearly.

Edited by REV. JAMES CAMERON, CHATSWORTH, ONT.

NOW READY.

The YEAR BOOK is intended to be a handy book of reference on all important matters connected with the Presbyterian Church of British North America; to meet further of spreading information among Presbyterian people, as to the history, work and prospects of Presbyterianism in this land and in other lands; as a beginning also the work of collecting statistical, historical and material data, which will be useful in after times as a contribution to the history of the Presbyterian Church in this section of North America, and as an offering, lastly, from Canada to her sister Presbyterian Churches throughout the world, for the work already begun, of ascertaining the strength of Presbyterianism in Christendom, of bringing its scattered branches to know each other better, and of uniting them in such work as may be common and possible to both.

The YEAR BOOK will, therefore, contain a calendar marked with days famous in Presbyterian Church history; the officers and members of the four Churches now constituting the General Union; the Presbyterian College in the Dominion, with names of Professors and subjects of study; sketches of the origin and progress of some of our leading Presbyterian Congregations, a glimpse of the branches of the Presbyterian family in other parts of the world, obituaries of Presbyterian Ministers in Canada deceased during the past year, together with short articles on Presbyterian topics of practical interest, such as Presbyterian Literature in the Dominion, Pastoral Sustentation Fund, Mission Work, and Ecumenical Council of Presbyterian Churches.

Correspondence has been opened up with leading men in various countries for obtaining official documents and personal information, and our replies have been prompt and cordial.

A REPRESENTATIVE & CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART TASTE!

Prospectus for 1875—Eighth Year.

THE ALDINE,
The ART JOURNAL of America.
ISSUED MONTHLY.

"A Magnificent Conception Wonderfully carried out"

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the "art" and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once took with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph! THE ALDINE

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has no equal in the variety of its illustrations, characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an original combination of pure Art and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior claimants, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception, and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The success of a complete volume can not fail to increase the quantity of fine art and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there is the chrome besides!

The national feature of THE ALDINE must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cosmopolitan. While THE ALDINE is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate only of grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing before the world THE ALDINE, as a leading character of the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will also be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources.

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE ALDINE, is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior paper. The judicious interspersions of landscape, marine, figure and animal subjects, sustain an equal interest, impossible where the same form of subject confines the artist too closely in a single style of composition.

The literary feature of THE ALDINE is a bold and graceful accomplishment worth of the artistic features, with only such technical requisitions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

Neatly Bound in Stiff Paper Wrapper, 25 cents

In Limp Cloth, 40 cents.

MASSACHUSETTS FRIEND

will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves a dog and the portrait is executed so true to life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the blues in Brooklyn) barks at it! Although so natural, no one who sees this precious chrome will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chrome, every advance subscriber to THE ALDINE for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union owns the originals of all THE ALDINE lectures, and engravings, and is the first to print among the members.

The average series of 5,000 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,000 are distributed in the Union as is full and the next 24 of the next succeeding issue are to be published in the same manner as the first.

The feature of THE ALDINE is a bold and graceful accomplishment worth of the artistic features, with only such technical requisitions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

One Subscription, entitling to THE ALDINE one year, the Chrome and the Art Union, $6.00 PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE.

(No charge for postage.)

Specimen Copies of THE ALDINE, 50 Cents

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates: cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local distributor, without responsibility to the publisher. Payment in advance where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of James Sutton, President.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys is derived from its cures, many of which are truly miraculous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrupulous contamination until they were finally afflicting, have been radically cured, and great numbers of almost every species of the country that the public scarcely need to be informed of the virtues of this cure.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invades the attack of insidious fatal diseases.
