Mercantile Summary.

We understand the old Kerby Hotel, Brantford has been purchased by the proprietor of the "Courter" House, of Buffalo, and is being refitted. The property is valuable, but has long been idle, and was fast going to decay.

The flour mills belonging to the Messrs. Fowles at Hastings, and rented by A. G. Scott, were consumed on the morning of the 12th. The mill was only partially insured, and Messrs. Fowles and Scott will both be losers.

THERE WILL be quite an exodus of wholesale firms shortly from their old premises on the lower portion of Yonge street, Toronto, several warehouses there being "to let." The following firms are about to move into new premises on Front street, on the south side, west of the Custom House: Messrs. Charlesworth & Co., Dobbie & Carrie, Jennings & Brandon, and Thos. Walls & Co., from Wellington street.
