

1901 In the year 1901 two public schools in Grand Junction, Colorado, and one private school in Jamestown, N.D., introduced the DeBrisay Analytical Latin Method into their classes. They have used the texts continuously since, and have repeated their orders this year. Over two hundred other schools in the United States are adopting the method this year. In September alone we received communications and orders from scores of schools and colleges, among others the following: University of Nebraska, University of Notre Dame, Buchnell University, Louisiana Female College, Ogden College, Bowling Green, Ky.; Crawfs College, Ottawa, Ohio; Mayfield College, Marble Hill, Mo.; Adrian College, Adrian, Mich.; Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minn.; Columbia College, Milton, Ore.; Henry Kendall College, Muskogee, I.T.; Olivet College, Olivet, Mich.; South Kentucky College, Hopkinsville, Ky.; McGaw Normal Institute, Reed's Ferry, N.H.; Jefferson High School, Fayette, Mo.; Opelida Public School, Ala., and over one hundred academies, convents and private schools. We have the royal road to Latin, French and Spanish. Courses by mail.
