

ANNEX "B"

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF NIGER

Projects approved under subsidiary agreements

- I Unless otherwise provided in the subsidiary agreements, the Government of Niger shall provide and defray services and expenses mentioned below:
1. appropriate furnished accommodation suited to the family situation of the Canadian personnel;
  2. furnished premises and office services, including among other things and within the limitations of the capabilities of the Government of Niger, adequate facilities and materiel, support staff, professional and technical material, telephone, mail and any other services which Canadian personnel might require to perform their duties;
  3. the granting, free of charge, of entry, residence and exit visas for Canadian personnel and their dependants;
  4. the recruitment and assignment of counterparts when required for the projects;
  5. all assistance to facilitate the travel of Canadian personnel in the performance of their duties within the territory of Niger;
  6. all assistance to expedite the clearance through customs of equipment, products, materials and other goods required for project execution, as well as the personal and household effects of Canadian personnel and their dependants;
  7. the storage of the articles mentioned in paragraph 6 above, and any measures required to protect these articles from natural elements, theft, fire and any other hazard, during the entire period when such articles are held at customs;
  8. the prompt transportation of all equipment, products, materials, and other imported goods required for project execution, from the point of entry in Niger to the project site, including, where necessary, obtaining priority status from Niger forwarding agents and carriers;
  9. permission to use all means of communication, such as frequency radio receivers and transmitters approved for use in Niger, and telephone systems, depending on program and project requirements;
  10. reports, records, maps, statistics and other information related to the projects and likely to be of help to Canadian personnel;
  11. other measures within its jurisdiction which may facilitate the execution of projects.
- II The Government of Niger acknowledges that each member of the Canadian personnel assigned to Niger shall be entitled to a period of annual leave.
