

The General Training Program: $13.5 M.

This project provides scholarship and training in Canada. The Canadian executing agency is Cogesult Ltd.

World University Service of Canada (WUSC) Graduate Fellowships: $5.2 M.

This project, through WUSC, arranges study opportunities in Canada under the World Bank and Asian Development Bank loan projects and involves the provision of English-language training.

Yogyakarta Disease Investigation Centre: $12.0 M.

This project improves the availability and delivery of veterinary services in Java with the goal of achieving food self-sufficiency. The executing agency is the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food.

4) Regional Institutional Development

At the provincial level, CIDA's projects contribute to improving the conditions of poor communities through provision of water, community development, improvement of local government agencies, and promotion of farmer and village associations.

Projects:CARE Canada Sulawesi Rural Community Development II: $9.9 M.

This project builds small-scale potable water systems, sanitation and latrines. The project is implemented by CARE Canada and CARE Indonesia in association with local communities.

Sulawesi Regional Development Phase II: $35.2 M.

This project strengthens planning and implementing institutions, area development and sectoral activities in four provinces of Sulawesi. The University of Guelph is the Canadian executing agency.

The following projects focus on water resource development to increase agricultural production in Nusa Tenggara Timur (NTT) province and four provinces in Sulawesi. The Canadian executing agencies help to strengthen regional planning capabilities.

NTT Water Resources Development: $16.3 M.

The Canadian executing agency is Crippen Consultants, a division of H.A. Simmons Ltd.

Dolago-Torue Irrigation: $10.0 M.

Agriteam Canada is the Canadian executing agency.

North Sulawesi Water Resources Development Services: $14.9M

The Canadian executing agency is SNC LAVALIN.

Water Sector Technical Co-operation Fund: $14.9 M.

This project provides technical assistance for long-term development of the water sector. AFH International is working in association with the Canadian Embassy and the ministry responsible for public works.