

sir,
Your obedient servant,
Louis-Frémont Trudeau
Brigadier General
Assistant Secretary to the Governor General

A message was delivered by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod as follows:

Mr. Speaker, the Honourable the Deputy Governor General desires the immediate attendance of the honourable House in the chamber of the honourable the Senate.

Accordingly, Mr. Speaker with the House went up to the Senate chamber.

• (8:00 p.m.)

And being returned:

Mr. Speaker informed the House that the Deputy Governor General had been pleased to give, in Her Majesty's name, the royal assent to the following bills:

An act to amend the Copyright Act

An act to amend the Customs Tariff

An act to amend the Excise Tax Act and the Old Age Security Act

An act to amend the Income Tax Act and to make certain provisions and alterations in the statute law related to or consequential upon the amendments to that act

An act to amend the statute law relating to income tax.

Business of the House

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. MacEachen moved:

That this House do now adjourn.

[Translation]

I have the pleasure of reminding hon. members that if they have a moment before leaving the House to join their families, I shall be most happy to welcome them in Room 16 to wish them and their wives and families a Merry Christmas.

[English]

Mr. Danforth: And a merry Christmas to you, Sir.

Mr. Speaker: When we are back next week I shall have the opportunity to wish hon. members a happy New Year.

Motion agreed to.

Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to the order made earlier this day, the House will adjourn until two o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, December 28, 1971.

At 8:10 p.m. the House adjourned, pursuant to special order, until 2 p.m. Tuesday, December 28.