Mr. Speaker: I declare the motion carried.

Bill read the third time and passed.

Mr. Speaker: The House will now proceed with the adjournment proceedings. The hon. member for Yorkton-Melville (Mr. Nystrom).

Mr. Nystrom: Mr. Speaker—

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. Is the hon. parliamentary secretary rising on a point of order?

Mr. Reid: Mr. Speaker, I think in view of the lateness of the hour there might be a disposition to forgo the pleasures of the "late show."

Mr. Speaker: Of course, we are in the hands of the hon. member for Yorkton-Melville who has already been given the floor. I am not sure that hon. members would want to forgo the pleasure of hearing the hon. member.

Mr. Nystrom: On a point of order, Mr. Speaker, because of the tremendous excitement in the House may we forgo this question until Thursday night?

Mr. Speaker: Is this agreed?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

At 10.31 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
