

December 12th, 1932.

Miss Mabel Hersey,
Royal Victoria Hospital.

Dear Miss Hersey,

I am interested in a student nurse at the Royal Victoria Hospital, whose name is Betty Radcliff. I understand that her people formerly came from my old home in Strathroy, Ontario. I knew Radcliffs there but had no acquaintance with this young lady. Her father is the manager of the Dominion Bank in Regina, Saskatchewan, and the Attorney General of that Province, whom I know very well, has written to me on the young lady's behalf.

I hope Miss Radcliff is getting along well, and that there is nothing likely to occur to interfere with the completion of her course at the Royal Victoria.

With kind personal regards,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,