Dear Sir Arthur.

Your letter of January 15th re the Museum excavation was forwarded to me here. Will you please let the matter which you speak of stand until next week when I expect to be in Montreal.

Mr. Keagerty of the Dominion Dept. of Health, has published and is addressing a series of meetings in this province and organizing new Social Hygiene Councils. You will be glad to know that the audiences have been tremendous and that altogether the meetings are the most successful series of the character ever held in Canada.
