

- patriot cause, sacrificing a large estate and his half pay for life, raised a regiment of Canadians, which was recruited from all quarters as the war proceeded, and known variously as "Congress's Own" and "Hazen's Own." The traitor Arnold honored him by baseless charges of insubordination, but the record proves his good conduct, and he was Brigadier-General at the close of the war. He cut a military road through northern Vermont, from Peacham to Hazen's Notch, in Montgomery, which still bears his name.
