

to drop my eyelids. Oh! that face! how dear to me! it still lives!

At seven o'clock he said, "Now, Lord, one more glance at Thy Word, then I will tie up the Book for my dear mother, and I go to Thee."

After he had arranged every thing on the table, he said to me: "Now Satan is assailing me."

I felt afraid of this, for I well knew that Satan could see he would soon be out of his reach, so I could but silently pray for him. In about four or five minutes he said: "It is all over. I am one with Christ, and Christ is one with God. God is my Father, and Satan is at my feet."

As the noise of feet and voices was beginning to be heard all around, he said: "Soon we shall be surrounded by people, so let me bid you good-by as I wish to;" and so saying he took me in his arms as a child, kissed me over and over again, then let me go, and said: "You have taught me the Truth of God, and He has plucked me as a brand from the burning to believe it. May God bless you and every thing you do. May He make you strong to preach the same things to many more till Jesus comes."

While he spoke the cell had been opened, and we were asked to go into another cell, where several were assembled with the other criminal.

A few minutes before eight the arms of both were tied to ascend to the gallows. While he was being tied a
