

that since the last Annual Meeting, the Lord Bishop of the Diocese has been enabled to place Clergymen at Pinchard's Island, at Salvage, and at New Harbor; all of them new Missions. It will be a matter of great satisfaction to all the members of the Church to hear this, and to learn also that these great benefits have been brought about through the exertions which have been made in the Parishes of Greenspond and Heart's Content to support the ministrations of religion among themselves. All the three places above mentioned, with the districts attached to them, were far too remote from the residence of the clergyman, under whose care they were placed, to be served with regularity and attention. During the winter and spring they were, of necessity, left to themselves, without the blessing of those religious services which it is the earnest wish of the Clergy to render. Let us, however, thank God that, to this extent, the lack of service has been supplied; let us also hope that ere long other widely extended districts, as Harbour Buffett, and Moreton's Harbour, and Trinity, may also be divided, and by the blessing of God more frequently and efficiently supplied with the services of true religion.

In connexion with this subject it is right to remark that the Committee gladly complied with the request of the Lord Bishop to devote the sum of £120 annually towards the support of the missionaries at Pinchard's Island and Salvage. The sum of £100 stg., formerly paid by the Society for Propagating the Gospel to the missionary at Greenspond, was placed at the disposal of the Bishop for the new missions in Bonavista Bay: and to meet the two sums of £50 stg. each the grants of £60 each were made to continue as long as his Lordship should think it desirable. The Committee feel confident that the members of the Church in Salvage and Pinchard's Island will do their utmost to help to maintain the worship of God, but in
