

ism, which first misleads and then tends to destroy everything that people had before been taught. And I think now you are faithfully warned, I have been as fair to these people as I possibly could, and be obliged to place their doctrines before you. They attempt a revival, but alas it is a revival in the wrong direction. I am no enemy of revivals. I think we are too apt to grow cold in the cause of Christ, and we want something to arouse us to duty; but there are right ways of conducting a revival, as perhaps we shall see some day here.*

In the meantime be attentive, my brethren, to your own religious duties, and be not carried about by every wind of doctrine. "Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein and ye shall find rest for your souls, (Jer. vi., 16,) "Believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God, FOR THERE ARE FALSE PROPHETS GONE OUT INTO THE WORLD." (1 John, iv, 1.)

THE END.

* I refer to "Church Missions," which have been attended with such good results, wherever they have been tried.
