

KITCHENER ON VISIT TO ARMY AT FRONT

Accompanied by Premier Asquith, War Minister Inpects Troops.

VISITS KING ALBERT

Saw Everything in Tour of Two Days and Half Duration.

BY FREDERICK PALMER.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, July 9.

For the first time since the army has occupied the present line, Field Marshal Earl Kitchener has been at the front. He was accompanied by Premier Asquith and Colonels Hankey and Fitzgerald.

The next morning Lord Kitchener was up at 5.30 o'clock, and an hour later he called at one of the department headquarters in the town, where he spent a half-hour. The major in charge belonged to the night tour, the officer of the day tour not having yet come on. Later, with Premier Asquith, he visited the second army, saw the troops, gun positions, and trenches, and went into shell-torn Tynes. Everywhere the party passed, troops were drawn up outside their billets as the automobiles went by.

That afternoon the field marshal met King Albert of Belgium and was shown the inundated area in front of the Belgian line. Kitchener visited the first army, reviewed the Belgian troops in position in the region of Arras. He returned to London on Thursday evening.

No feature of the army organization at the front was omitted from the field marshal's inspection. He saw more in two and one-half days than anyone had ever been able to see in the same length of time at the front. His characteristic gift for reaching the essentials was shown by his probing questions, whether he was watching the aviators or looking at gun positions and wherever he went officer-experts of each branch of the service were at hand to answer his inquiries.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

The week-end exodus from Toronto. There are many people in Toronto originally brought up in nearby points who make it a practice during the summer months to "get back home" as many week-ends as possible. There are also those who are anxious to get away from the noise and heat of the city for their weekly rest, and choose some spot which can be reached easily and at a convenient hour.

For these, no better service will be found than the Canadian Northern summer special, which leaves the Union Station on Saturdays only at 1.30 p.m. for such places as Orono, Fort Hope, Cobourg, Brighton, Trenton, Picton, Belleville, Deseronto and Napanee. A return train arrives Toronto at 11.15 p.m. on Sundays.

WHERE IS WILLIE OATS? The Salvation Army is desirous of locating Willie Oats. If he or his friends will communicate with Col. Jacobs assistance will be given immediately.

BABY'S GREAT DANGER DURING HOT WEATHER. More little ones die during the hot weather than at any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, infantum and stomach troubles come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give promptly the short delay too frequently means that the child has passed beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in homes where there are young children. An occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will cure the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GREAT SUBSCRIPTIONS TO BRITISH WAR LOAN. Two Banks Apply for More Than Hundred Million Dollars' Worth. LONDON, July 9.—The London City and Midland Bank and Lloyds Bank today each applied for $105,000,000 worth of the new British war loan of $1,250,000,000. These are by far the largest subscriptions yet announced. The London County and Westminster Bank subscribed for $100,000,000.

WILLS PROBATED. Written three days before her death on a single sheet of paper and signed with an almost illegible signature, Olive Silk, who died on May 5, leaves her total estate, consisting of a mortgage of $462, to her husband, Herbert Silk. Mrs. Henrietta A. Wilson, who died June 27, left her estate, consisting of 236 Western avenue, valued at $2500, promissory notes for $102 and $524 secured by mortgage to her husband, Wellington Wilson.

PROMINENT MEXICAN ARRESTED. EL PASO, Texas, July 9.—Jose Alejo Robles, a former Mexican general, was arrested by federal authorities today charged with conspiracy to violate the United States neutrality laws. He has a deposit of $5000 bond he was taken to jail.

A Real Flesh Builder For Thin People. A New Discovery. Thin men and women—those big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You have passed from your body. That fat passed through an open grate. The material and steak, your food doesn't work hard to get enough nourishment from it. This is true of the food of cook-overs. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are sadly out of order. Cut out the foolish foods and funny rub-ons. Cut out everything but the every one of them a single Sargol tablet. Five to eight good solid pounds of fat rest there! Sargol charges your weak, new red blood corpuscles—gives the body carrying power to deliver every food to every part of your body. Sargol, it for the blood in your food and prepares. Thin people gain all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month, while taking Sargol. It is a scientific combination of six of the best food-producing elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive. All drugists in Toronto and vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR? Train of Thought Inspired by a Letter About "Fruit-a-tives". MR. D. McLEAN. Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914. "For over two years I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results, and my headaches became more severe. One day I saw, your sign which read: "Fruit-a-tives" make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for "Fruit-a-tives", and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is daily proving its priceless value in relieving cases of Stomach, Liver and Kidney Trouble—General Weakness and Skin Diseases. 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent post-paid by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

ALLEGATION MADE THAT UNION REGULATIONS STAND IN WAY. Military Authorities in Possession of Document—Recruiting Station Closed. Toronto military authorities yesterday afternoon obtained a signed statement from a man claiming to be a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters. One of the clauses of it reads: "I hereby declare that one of the clauses of the constitution of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters is that Canadians are debarred from joining for active service."

FOOD SUPPLIES HELD BACK FROM BELGIANS. German Military Authorities Said to be Applying More Pressure. ROTTERDAM, Holland, July 9.—(Via London.)—It is reported here in several military circles, that the German authorities of the Belgian provinces, are endeavoring to force the civilians to work for the army. The food supplies sent in by the with-held food supplies in Malines, the supply of food is said to have been stopped because the mechanics refused to work in the railroad shops. At Courtrai the workers are reported to have been deprived of food by their factories, while similar action was taken at Roubaix on the refusal of the workers to make sand bags for trenches.

SWISS WAR LOAN OF TWENTY MILLIONS. Outlay Will Cover Cost of Mobilization of Forces. BERNE, Switzerland (via London), July 9.—The Swiss Government today decided to issue a new loan, to cover the cost of mobilization, of $20,000,000. The loan will bear 4-1/2 per cent. interest, and will be issued at 98 1/2.

BURY THOSE LOST IN TROLLEY WRECK

Many Funeral Services Will Be Held Thruout Toronto Today.

TO BE FIRING SQUAD

T. M. C. Will Honor Comrade—Floral Tributes in Memory of Friends.

A large number of beautiful floral tributes, betokening the high regard in which the late Harold J. Partridge, organist of Woodgreen Methodist Church, was held by his many friends, were received at his late residence, 22 Garden avenue, yesterday.

The funeral of Mr. Partridge, who was one of the victims of the Queenston catastrophe, will be held today from 10 to 11 o'clock at his late residence, where a service will be conducted by Rev. J. E. Marney, Rev. H. C. Church, Rev. J. E. Marney and Rev. H. C. Church. The service will be at 1.30 p.m.

The funeral service for the late Mrs. Jane Heron Westney will be conducted at 2.30 p.m. At this service Pastor Rev. J. E. Marney, father-in-law of Mr. Partridge, and Rev. Dr. Roper of East Toronto, 24 Langley avenue, will take part. The funeral service for the late S. W. Grant, 24 Langley avenue, who was advertising manager of the Westminster Publishing Co., will be held at 11 o'clock this morning at St. John's Presbyterian Church. Afterwards the remains will be taken to Hamilton.

The funeral service for the late Mrs. Jane Heron Westney will be conducted at 2.30 p.m. At this service Pastor Rev. J. E. Marney, father-in-law of Mr. Partridge, and Rev. Dr. Roper of East Toronto, 24 Langley avenue, will take part. The funeral service for the late S. W. Grant, 24 Langley avenue, who was advertising manager of the Westminster Publishing Co., will be held at 11 o'clock this morning at St. John's Presbyterian Church. Afterwards the remains will be taken to Hamilton.

Late Elizabeth Crombie. The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Crombie will be held at her brother-in-law's home, 148 Cartwright avenue, at 11 o'clock this morning. The service will be conducted by Rev. D. W. Christie, Interment will take place at St. John's Cemetery, Toronto.

Late Charles P. A funeral service for the late Charles P. will be held at his late residence, 503 Broad street, at 11 o'clock this morning. The Toronto Military division will attend the service. The interment will be at St. John's Cemetery, Toronto.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train of Thought Inspired by a Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. McLEAN.

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914. "For over two years I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results, and my headaches became more severe. One day I saw, your sign which read: "Fruit-a-tives" make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for "Fruit-a-tives", and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is daily proving its priceless value in relieving cases of Stomach, Liver and Kidney Trouble—General Weakness and Skin Diseases. 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent post-paid by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

ALLEGATION MADE THAT UNION REGULATIONS STAND IN WAY. Military Authorities in Possession of Document—Recruiting Station Closed. Toronto military authorities yesterday afternoon obtained a signed statement from a man claiming to be a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters. One of the clauses of it reads: "I hereby declare that one of the clauses of the constitution of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters is that Canadians are debarred from joining for active service."

FOOD SUPPLIES HELD BACK FROM BELGIANS. German Military Authorities Said to be Applying More Pressure. ROTTERDAM, Holland, July 9.—(Via London.)—It is reported here in several military circles, that the German authorities of the Belgian provinces, are endeavoring to force the civilians to work for the army. The food supplies sent in by the with-held food supplies in Malines, the supply of food is said to have been stopped because the mechanics refused to work in the railroad shops. At Courtrai the workers are reported to have been deprived of food by their factories, while similar action was taken at Roubaix on the refusal of the workers to make sand bags for trenches.

SWISS WAR LOAN OF TWENTY MILLIONS. Outlay Will Cover Cost of Mobilization of Forces. BERNE, Switzerland (via London), July 9.—The Swiss Government today decided to issue a new loan, to cover the cost of mobilization, of $20,000,000. The loan will bear 4-1/2 per cent. interest, and will be issued at 98 1/2.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

AUSTRIANS LEFT BULLETS BEHIND

Seventy-Five Pounds of Cartridges Found in Their Rooms.

BOYS' LOADED PISTOL

Stanley Edwards Arrested on Several Charges of Theft.

Seventy-five pounds of heavy-caliber cartridges were found by the Claremont street police in a house at 127 Niagara street, and headquarters men who investigated the case believe the stuff was left behind by a family of Austrians who recently vacated the premises.

Three small boys made the find yesterday afternoon while playing hide-and-seek about the premises. The ammunition was stowed away in an old cupboard and wrapped up in packages of ten. They are of about 10-caliber, and probably fit the old Martini-Henry rifle. The castings are old and have been re-fused.

Had Loaded Revolver. Sixteen-year-old Stanley Edwards, 46 Beirmore avenue, was relieved of a fully-loaded revolver and a score of loose cartridges by Detective Armstrong, who arrested him on several charges of theft yesterday.

The lad is at present out on probation from the Industrial School, and is charged with stealing the gun from "Varey's" sporting goods store, with stealing $8 from a storekeeper on Queen street, with breaking into a Red Cross contribution box, and with the theft of a bicycle from the G.N.W. Telegraph Company.

CARPENTERS KEPT FROM ENLISTING?

Allegation Made That Union Regulations Stand in Way.

SIGNED STATEMENT

Military Authorities in Possession of Document—Recruiting Station Closed.

Toronto military authorities yesterday afternoon obtained a signed statement from a man claiming to be a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters. One of the clauses of it reads: "I hereby declare that one of the clauses of the constitution of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters is that Canadians are debarred from joining for active service."

(Signed) S. Betlandey, 454 Dundas street, Toronto. (Witness) Chas. Rogers.

FOOD SUPPLIES HELD BACK FROM BELGIANS. German Military Authorities Said to be Applying More Pressure. ROTTERDAM, Holland, July 9.—(Via London.)—It is reported here in several military circles, that the German authorities of the Belgian provinces, are endeavoring to force the civilians to work for the army. The food supplies sent in by the with-held food supplies in Malines, the supply of food is said to have been stopped because the mechanics refused to work in the railroad shops. At Courtrai the workers are reported to have been deprived of food by their factories, while similar action was taken at Roubaix on the refusal of the workers to make sand bags for trenches.

SWISS WAR LOAN OF TWENTY MILLIONS. Outlay Will Cover Cost of Mobilization of Forces. BERNE, Switzerland (via London), July 9.—The Swiss Government today decided to issue a new loan, to cover the cost of mobilization, of $20,000,000. The loan will bear 4-1/2 per cent. interest, and will be issued at 98 1/2.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

Both the premier and Lord Kitchener stopped and spoke to men who were engaged in digging fortifications. Wherever they went, the silver-haired premier and the tall determined appearing general were recognized and it was evident from the attitude with which Lord Kitchener was met that a hold he has on the imagination of the army. He showed less fatigue than some of the younger members of the party who accompanied him.

LITTLE DOG ENLISTS WILL GO AS MASCOT

Mississauga Horse Recruit Attached Himself Without an Examination.

One of the latest recruits secured by the Mississauga Horse at their recruiting station outside the armories is a small terrier which has attached himself to the recruiting tent, and exhibits a lively interest in the proceedings. Nobody knows where the dog came from, but he evidently felt that his services were required in this hour of the empire's crisis, and having offered himself at the recruiting station, he was immediately accepted as mascot for the new battalion which is being organized. He has been nicknamed "Nuts" by the officers.

The old country regiment now represented in the new battalion, which is being organized by Major Beckett, includes the Black Watch, Scots Guards, Bombay Cavalry, 16th Lancers, Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, Royal Scots and Royal London Foot Guards. In addition to veterans of all these British regiments the Mississauga Horse has enrolled quite a few men who were thru the South African war. In some cases these veterans after enlisting with the Mississauga Horse have gone off in order to bring in as recruits some of their old comrades in these famous English regiments, of whom there appear to be quite a number still in Toronto, in spite of the fact that many enlisted in the earlier contingents.

A Great Success. The mass meeting held in Weston last night in the interests of the recruiting campaign proved a great success. The meeting was preceded by a torchlight procession, headed by Weston's brass band, and stirring speeches were delivered by the chairman, Mayor Charlton of Weston; Mayor Church of Toronto; J. Castell Hopkins and others. Immediately after the meeting the recruiting sergeants of the Mississauga Horse started work among the crowd, and at a late hour last night the recruiting campaign proved a great success. The meeting