

Council
chedule,
said Se-
Matters
g before ade and
of Re-
be, as d to the

Council,
evident-
uncil or ended to mittees of ports of e imme-ajesty in Council,

Council, and (as is most humbly conceived) if any Matter of Doubt arose in Council concerning the same, the said Report was to be referred back to the Council of Trade, at which Board the extraordinary Members might take their Place, in order to consult what was fit to be done. In which there was much Safety, as all the Papers and Records relative to the Affairs of the Colonies are supposed to center in the said Office.

The appointing of the Right Hon. the Lords of the Cabinet Council to be Extraordinary Members of the Board of Trade, seems

F like-