

the Rev. Dr. Lowrey, of Ohio, whose discourse and addresses afforded great satisfaction to all who had the privilege of listening to them. The subject of this excellent sermon is the Divine Beauty as displayed in the Church.

It is believed that these instructive and eloquent sermons thus collected and published in this little volume, will be read with profit and pleasure by thousands who had not the opportunity of hearing them.

TORONTO, June 20th, 1870.

---