

Postpone, To—

of a dilatory nature, 33.

United States practice respecting—to postpone to a specified time, 33.

an indefinite period, 34.

in absence of special rule, parliamentary rules prevail and motions amendable and debatable, 37.

Rule in following bodies—

Builders' Labourers' National Union, No. 1. Toronto (amendable and debatable), 136.

Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, to postpone to a certain time, debatable and amendable; to postpone indefinitely, not debatable or amendable, 122.

International Typographical Union, No. 91 (amendable debatable), 139.

Iron Moulders' Union of North America (amendable and debatable), 144.

Toronto Typographical Union, No. 91 (amendable and debatable), 141.

Trades and Labour Council of Hamilton (amendable and debatable), 128-135.

Trades and Labour Council of Toronto (amendable and debatable), 128.

Previous Question, The

its meaning and object in Canadian legislatures, 18-22, 51.
cannot be moved on an amendment, 19.

but can be moved, if amendment be withdrawn or negatived, 20, 51.

when moved, no amendment admissible, 51.

adjournment of house or debate admissible, 51.

but not, if house resolves that the question shall now be put, 51.

does not stop debate in Canadian legislatures, 19.

when carried debate ceases, and vote taken on main motion, 19.

if negatived, main motion superseded, and other matter taken up, 19.