An Oriental Rug Story Interest 368 them Will be Put Sale Monday

A merchant in Constantinople shipped this large cargo of rugs to a broker in old London, who was unable to meet the demands of his bank. There promised to be a lot of trouble ahead for everyone concerned, when our buyer stepped in with a spot cash offer for the whole consignment. As a result the bales are now being unpacked on our fourth floor.

This Disposal Will Astonish Local Rug Merchants

Most of the seven bales consist of real antiques, in excellent condition, just as they were taken out of the eastern homes, unwashed and undoctored. Take a glance at the windowful of them, and then, if you know rug value, you will estimate the savings on ordinary market prices to be as much as fifty per cent. Every one of these antique Oriental rugs will become more valuable year by year. The spectacle of such rugs selling at such prices is quite unexampled in local trade annals.

At $11.50 A number of Anatolians, small Shirvans and Mosouls, a little bright in coloring, but excellent qualities; rugs which will greatly increase in value.

t. $14.50 A large pile of Shirvans, Kazaks, Mosouls and Kabristans, averaging more than 15 square feet each.

At $19.50—Large Kazaks, Daghestans, Kabristans, Shirvans and fine Bokharas, of small and medium size.

$24.50 Bokharas, Persian Strips, Kazaks, Shirvans, medium and large sizes, in particularly good colorings.

$29.50 Long Persian Strips, very large Kazaks, silky Shirvans, and beautiful Antique Bokharas.

$34.50 Fine Irans, Shir vans, Mosouls, Daghestans and extra long Persian Strips. $39.50 Fine Sarabands, large size Shirazes and Shirvans, silky Kabristans and Persian Strips.

$44.50—Persian Strips, 17 feet long, heavy weave, in excellent coloring, antique Kazaks, Bokharas and Mosouls. Tabrizes, Royal Bekharas, antique Kirmanshahs, Khiva Bokharas, Afghans and plain Turkey Carpets, in room sizes, at correspondingly low prices.

The Rugs themselves tell their own story best to the eyes of those people for whom beauty is a joy and economy an advantage.

Old Fashioned Fabrics The foremost housefur nishers both in England and America have gradually come round to the belief that the simple old-fashioned fabrics, such as Chintzes and Cretonnes, in the quaint patterns our great grandparents knew, are the most cheerful things to live with ever used in homefurnishing. And the feature that is most interesting about their revival is that they may be successfully applied to almost any room. A dingy parlor may be transformed into a delightful living room by a few loose covers and curtains of chintz, mixed with a little sunshine. Look what the fabric here illustrated has done for this oriel! Yet this complete chintz effect in just such a fabric, in your own room, with all the work done by our own what kind of room you have, the artistic use of these bright, old-fashioned fabrics will make all the difference between sunshine and gloom for you due ing the coming winter.
