TODAY our store news tells only of goods made in the British Empire. The several departments have arranged this demonstration of how large a place British Industries and Home Industries occupy in supplying the daily needs of our customers. No unworthy goods of any nationality are, at any time, to be found in this Simpson Store, but those who appreciate the serviceable, the sturdy, the "all wool and a yard wide" will take special pleasure in shopping here to-morrow when the honest product of the mother country and her daughters will be brought to the front.

Not in staple departments alone will the product of the Empire's industries be found. They include also artistic and delicate fabrics and laces, rare china, sterling silverware and jewellery, as well as superb carpets, rugs and furnishings for the home.

You'll need no bargains to draw you here to-morrow, but many of the values on this page are, to say the least of it, extraordinary, demonstrating what less money than in this store.

A hearty British-Canadian invitation and welcome to all, whether purchasers or visitors.
