RYAN'S DENIAL OF CAUSING EXPLOSIONS

President of the Ironworkers' Union Says He Knows of Outrages Only Thru
the Papers.

ARRANGED FOR "JOBS"

But Term Had Reference to Purely Legitimate Endeavors in His Emphatic Statement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 3.—(Can. Press).—Letters written by Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, were read in conjunction with dates of explosions in the cross-examination of Ryan by the government at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

Ryan testified that his knowledge of numerous explosions which occurred after he had written a letter from New York was gained entirely thru newspaper accounts. He said newspaper accounts of explosions on non-union jobs often were enclosed in letters as news.

Extractions from the New York letter, which Ryan testified he wrote on April 27, 1910, as head of the union, to Secretary John J. McNamara, and the explosion which the government cited as having occurred later, were:

"Let Leggett take care of the jobs in his district." Henry W. Leggett, now of Denver, was then a member of the executive board, stationed at Pittsburgh. An explosion occurred at McKee's Rocks, near Pittsburgh, in July, 1910.

Meaning of "Jobs."

"Let Hookin arrange for Cleveland, Cincinnati and Detroit jobs." Herbert S. Hookin is charged with being leader of the "dynamiting crew." An explosion occurred at Cleveland June 22, that year.

"Davenport, Iowa, and Peoria, Ill., can be handled by Hookin." Explosions occurred at Davenport and Peoria on June 4.

"What did you mean when you said let Leggett and Hookin take care of these jobs?" asked District Attorney Miller.

"I meant they were to use every legitimate means to have union men put to work," answered Ryan.

LEGISLATION FOR PLANNING TOWNS

Provincial Conference Will Be Held in Berlin to Formulate a Plan of Action.

With the object of seeking special legislation to enable cities and towns of a hundred thousand and less population to carry on town planning schemes, a provincial conference is to be held in Berlin during the latter end of next week. The mayors of St. Thomas, Guelph, Sarnia and Hamilton have already signified their intention to be there, and it is expected that every large municipality in Ontario will join in the project.

While at the present moment a city like Toronto has no difficulty in securing the legislature's sanction of street widening and boulevard programs, and to conduct all the many phases of "better city" ideas, smaller places have great difficulty in carrying out their town planning proposals. Representatives of the Toronto Civic Guild and the town planning committee of the board of trade will attend to explain Toronto's position.

The same men responsible for the early promulgation of the hydro-electric idea in Western Ontario are promoting this conference.

Margaret Illington
—SEATS TODAY—

Judging from indications, the engagement of Margaret Illington will prove to be one of the banner engagements of the local theatrical season at the Alexandra Theatre. A line of enthusiastic admirers have already made reservations by mail, and no doubt the box office officials will be kept busy when the sale opens this morning.

Miss Illington will be presented in an entirely different role than any in which she has ever been seen in Toronto before. The work of Miss Illington, known hitherto by her extraordi-dramatic success "Kindling" at the any performances in French melodramas, will no doubt prove a revelation to many hundreds of followers in this city. "Kindling" is the work of Charles Kenyon, a young western author, who has made a reputation second to none of our native dramatists.

Miss Illington as Maggie Schultz, like all the great tragic actresses, rends the veil of the tabernacle and lays bare the mystery. It is this "power" in her acting that makes one think and compare her to the great Duse. Miss Illington will be supported by the original Daily Theatre, New York, Company.

DOUBLE CEREMONY.

Sir Wm. Meredith and His Brother to Be Sworn in Saturday.

Sir William Meredith and Mr. Justice R. M. Meredith may both be sworn in on Saturday, the former as chief justice of the court of appeal, and the latter as chief justice of the common pleas. The swearing of brothers on the same day would be something unique in court history.

The ceremony, as at present arranged, will take place in the Government House, before the Lieutenant-governor and a clerk of the privy council.

NESTOR OF CANADA
HAD MISTAKEN VIEW

Sir Richard Cartwright Never Fully Realized Canadian Commercial Conditions, Says Sir G. Ross.

OTTAWA, Dec. 3.—(Can. Press).— The senate's sitting today was distinguished chiefly for references to the memory of Sir Richard Cartwright, eloquently made by Hon. Mr.
Loughheed, the government leader, and by Sir George Ross, leader of the opposition. Kindly references were also made to the late Senators Wilson and Bell.

Sir George Ross said that as all knew Sir Richard was a man who held very prominent views which he did not hesitate to express. His forecast ability was great and had added lustre to the proceedings of parliament in both its chambers. All who had associated with him could bear testimony to his great courtesy and kindly consideration. His public life had run parallel with the public life of Canada from confederation down to the present time and the history of the Dominion will not be written without according him a conspicuous place in its annals.

Note of Criticism.

Sir Geo. Ross said that Senator Wilson had been an old friend of his.
He was a man who had given a long and useful service to public life. The reference of Mr. Loughheed to Sir Richard Cartwright was an appreciation of a great man in a kindly spirit.

"Two features stand out prominently. First, he was a decided champion of economy in the administration of the Dominion treasury. With Gladstone he believed that the house should not be a single shilling for any purpose unless that shilling was justly provided for in the revenue.
The second feature of his public career was his indefatigable opposition to taxing the public beyond the necessaries of the public service and particularly by a tariff that placed, as he said, the consumer largely at the mercy of the producer.

"I think myself that he pushed his theory too far and that, with all his breadth of view he never fully realized the commercial conditions of Canada, which involved principles of taxation not applicable to the mother country.

"I never knew any man to contradict any of his statements successfully. What he was courteous in debate even when he was playing fair even when he played hardest, and his sarcasm, the not always pleasant, was never drawn from his imagination."

WISCONSIN HAS AN ARSON TRUST

More Than Ten Millions of Property Destroyed by Band Connected With Adjusters.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 3.—(Can. Press).—State Fire Marshal T. M. Purcell, in a statement today said that his department has collected evidence which shows the existence of an "arson trust" operating in Wisconsin and other states for a number of years. He added that warrants have been issued for the arrest of several of the alleged principals, most of whom live outside of Wisconsin. The arson was carried on, according to Mr. Purcell, in conjunction with a band of fire adjusters. "It is the most perfectly organized 'trust' for the destruction of property by fire that has ever been uncovered in this country," said Mr. Purcell.

"As far as the investigation has gone we are led to believe that this one organization has destroyed over $10,000,000 worth of property in the last decade."

Seasonable Recipes

Smothered Fish.

Put six or seven slices of fat salt pork in a frying pan and fry slowly. When the pork is brown take it out and put in the fat five or six sliced onions of medium size. Cook the onions until they are about a third done; then skim out the onions and lay pieces of raw, fresh fish on the bottom of the pan. Over this spread some of the onion, adding a dash of salt and pepper. Cover the onions with sliced raw potatoes and a sprinkling of salt; then put on another layer of fish, which should be covered with more onions, salted and peppered. The top layer of the dish should be formed of sliced raw potatoes, also seasoned. Cover closely, and cook slowly on a part of the range where the dish will not burn, until all the ingredients are thoroughly cooked. It will take an hour or more to accomplish this.

Cold cooked fish and cold boiled potatoes may be used in place of the raw material, but in that case the pork and onions should be prepared just as if all the ingredients were raw.

Salmon en Surprise.

Line a slightly buttered small bread pan or other mold with warm-steamed rice. Fill the centre with flaked canned salmon seasoned with salt, pepper and a slight grating of nutmeg. Cover with rice, set in a pan of hot water and let cook 45 minutes. Remove to a hot serving dish, pour egg sauce around it and garnish with sprigs of parsley. Egg sauce is made after this fashion: Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter, add three tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until well blended; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, one and one-half cupfuls of hot water. Bring to the boiling point and let boil three minutes; then add three tablespoonfuls of butter, bit by bit, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of lemon juice and the slightly beaten yolks of two eggs.

Italian Chicken.

Italian chicken is prepared in this way: Skin and clean a chicken and in a saucepan with one pint of boiling stock, a shallot and one blade of mace.
Simmer slowly until tender. Break quarter of a pound of macaroni into small pieces, cook it in boiling water until tender, then strain and add one tablespoonful of grated cheese and seasoning of salt and pepper. Arrange this around the edge of a hot dish with the chicken in the centre. Moat a tablespoonful of butter, rub into it one tablespoonful of flour, add the liquid from the chicken, and boil. Then We are holding a Guessing Contest this week, and wish to see how long it will take one of our large Filters to choke up with germs and dirt from raw city water. We know by test that it will run considerably over a week, but the exact time we do not know. This is for you to guess. The time depends entirely on condition of city water. The filter is placed in our window, and was turned on Monday, Dec. 2nd, 9 a.m., and will run each day from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., with the exception of Saturday (11 a.m. Sunday and the day it becomes completely choked. The contest will close the moment water begins to drop from spout instead of flowing an unbroken stream. All guesses must be registered before 12 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 7th. Only one guess for each individual. Guesses may be registered personally or by mail. Extra ballots may be had at once.

quarter of a yard of blue-and-white India print, and enough half-inch white ribbon for two full rosettes. The cotton print is fitted round the roll with pins, and its turned-in edge is then hemmed down so that the stitches barely show. The raw edges at each end are gathered together with coarse thread and held by a ribbon rosette. Japanese towelings are another material that can be successfully used as a covering for the centrepiece roll.

Handkerchief collar.—The fine linen handkerchief, with a hemstitched edge and Mexican drawn-work decoration, is a suitable one from which to make a sailor collar, pointed at the back for a young girl. You have only to fold it three-cornerwise and make a scalloped slash from one corner in to one inch beyond the exact centre. Then place the handkerchief round the neck and trim away a very little of the linen at the back and sides of the neck. Slope it gradually down to the front points, bind this out edge with a narrow straight strip of linen, and with a pressing the collar is finished. Cuffs to match may be added by cutting a duplicate handkerchief diagonally in half and binding the raw edges.

A lavender spread.—This is to lay over the sheets and pillow-cases in the linen closet or chest. It can be made any size, because its mission is not exactly to conceal, but to sweeten. Get enough pale lavender Japanese crepe to cover two sides of a long sheet of white cotton wadding. Split open the wadding, and sprinkle in a great mass of dried lavender blossoms; fold the wadding together again, cover it with the crepe, which should be basted together with the edges carefully turned in. If you will fold in a full inch everywhere, there will be no necessity for slip-stitching them together, because you can arrange a facing of narrow lavender ribbon round the four sides. This will appear to be neat, but will be crisscrossed over the edge and sewed in place, because the combination of crepe and wadding will scarcely admit of an actual lacing thru, except by the punching of awkward holes.

COMPENSATION FOR FLOODS.

KINGSTON, Dec. 3.—(Special).—At the court house this afternoon the Ontario Government Commission looked into the question of drowned lands in the Township of Hinchinbrooke, Camden and Portland. The lands are flooded by certain dams of the Seymour Power Co. The commission is composed of Government Engineer A. H. Halford, Prof. A. K. Kirkpatrick of Queen's. The people's committee is composed of R. A. Hamilton, reeve of Hinchinbrooke; L. R. Rutan, reeve of Portland; W. J. Allan, reeve of Cam-

STOLE MATS TO BUY LIQUOR.

KINGSTON, Dec. 3.—(Special).—The police rounded up William Carver and wife for wholesale theft of door mats from prominent residents. Both were found guilty. The husband was sent to jail for three months, and wife for one month. They admitted they stole mats to buy liquor. Three little children were taken from them and handed over to the care of the Children's Aid Society.

The Gourlay Piano
Artistically and Materially Excellent
