SOLDIERS BEATEN

IN SOCCER FIXTURE

Civilians Victors, Three Goals to One, in Holiday Game.

The bill of fare provided for soccer followers on the holiday was a game between teams selected from the civilian and military clubs of the T. and O. The game was staged at Varsity Stadium, and a good crowd saw the civilians beat the military by 3 goals to 1. The teams played under Referee Fern as follows: —Civilians (8)—Bennett (O.C.C.), Edwards (Dunlop), Shaw (Baracas), Lick-say (O.C.C.), Sheppard (T.S.R.), Jackson (O.C.C.), Hunt (Willis-Overland), Crawley (Dunlop), Oakley (Willis-Overland), McChristie (Dunlop), Worthington (T.S.R.).
—Military (8)—Wadding (R.A.F. Stores), Anderson (Base Hospital), Roscoe (Base Hospital), Smith (C.A.G.S.), Johnson (R.
F. Stores), Hill (Base Hospital), Thompson (R.C.D.), Lobban (R.C.D.), Bolton (C.A.G.S.), McFarlane (Base Hospital), Taylor (R.A.F. Stores).
First Half.
Bolton kicked off for the soldiers, play being fairly even for the first few minutes. The soldiers were the first to find their feet, and after about ten minutes' play, pretty work on the part of Bolton and Lobban enabled the latter to open the scoring from close range. Bennett having no chance with a hard drive, stung by this reverse, the civilians put on the pressure, and Wadding saved a hot one from Crawley. A free kick against the soldiers looked dangerous, but Sheppard shot behind.
The military had the better of the game for the next few minutes, the footwork of the forwards being a treat to watch. Taylor put across two good centres in as many minutes, Bennett making a lucky save from Bolton on the first, and Thompson hitting the upright with a hard drive from the second. With only a few minutes to go for half-time, Crawley tried a long one for the civi-ans, and had the satisfaction of seeing the ball slip out of Wadding's hands into the net, thus evening it up. Hardly had the game restarted when Crawley again got thru and beat Wadding, this time giving the goalie no chance. Immediately after this half-time was called, with the score: Civilians 3, Military 1.
