ART SCHOOL AFFAIRS AGAIN Mr. Carscallen Finds Principal Ireland Can Be Appointed For Three-Year Term.

CATARACT COMPANY CAME DOWN And the Locked-Out Employees Go Back to Work—General News Hamilton, Aug. 28.—(Special.)—President A. M. Dixon, J. T. Glasco, A. L. Pentecost, A. Foreman, Hugh Sutherland, J. A. Arnes and George Midgley of the Art School Board met this afternoon and devoted the session to the question of Principal Ireland's reappointment. At the last meeting of the board the legal question of the board's right to engage Mr. Ireland for a longer term than one year was left to Henry Carscallen, Q.C.

President Dixon read a letter from Mr. Carscallen, in which he, after reviewing the circumstances and the law on the question, gave it as his opinion that the board had the power to engage Principal Ireland for a term of three years, there being no bylaws governing the action of the board.

Mr. Glasco said he was surprised to hear that the board had such power. He considered it would be a mistake to engage Mr. Ireland for three years. It would give substantial ground to the rumors that the board was elected for the purpose of appointing Mr. Ireland for three years. Legally, it might be all right, but morally it was not. Mr. Ireland had qualifications that should ensure his reappointment.

President Dixon expressed similar views. He thought it would be better for Mr. Ireland to accept engagement from year to year. Mr. Dixon added that in the event of Mr. Ireland desiring to leave he should give the board one year's notice.

Principal Ireland indicated that powers without were conferred on him. He threw out in less than a year.

Mr. Arnes moved, seconded by Mr. Foreman, in effect, that Principal Ireland be re-engaged for a term of three years, to be by him at the end of the second year, if his services were no longer required, and if at the end of the third year notice in case he decided to resign.

Only Mr. Glasco and the president opposed to the motion, and it was carried.

Yacht Myrtle Sailed. The fast yacht Myrtle, which was built as a cup defender, is in possession of Bruce Buchanan's officers. It was seized at the residence of the late John Buchanan, the Walker-Childman syndicate, who had trouble with William Buchanan, a minor stockholder. Commodore Walker accepted Buchanan's offer to retire from the company, but when the money was offered, Mr. Buchanan, who had refused to accept the money, had agreed to accept the syndicate's offer to retire from the company.

Is Fox an Absconder? The Magee-Walton Ice Company announced this afternoon that its collector, George Fox, who has been missing for over a week, is short in his accounts. No one can be learned from a job-street, but it is expected the storeroom will run about $4000 in debt. The company will apply for a warrant for Fox's arrest to-morrow. Fox was formerly a well-known member of a job-street, and was not under bonds.

Men Employed in the City got busy this morning because a man who had been missing for some time was found and went out on strike. That was the view of the situation, from the office of Engineer Wingate, however, the men were not on strike.
