Man.)-The long-expected Grand Trunk Pacific bill came before committee today. This bill says nothing of subsidies. That matter, if it comes up, will be dealt with separately. The big committee-room was packed to the doors. A map of the proposed joute filled a large part of the wall behind Chairman Hyman. It showed a line running from Quebec to North Bay, thence north of Lake Nepigon to Bay, thence north Edmonton to Whindpeg, thence thru Edmonton to the Rockies and the Coast, thru Peace of Pine River Pass, a dotted line showing that the route had been deflected so as to run thru northerly of Ontario of and Quebec, instead o. dipping down to North Bay. This is supposed to lemove from the theatre of disputes for some years to come this vexed question, because it cannot be settled in the nature of things for a long time after it reaches the Hague.

Washington, May 7.—United States Secretary of War Root and Senator Lodge, members of the Alaskan Boundary Commission, held a long conference to-day, at which the details of the arrangements for the meeting of the commission in London were discussed. Senator Lodge expects to leave for Europe early in July, but Secretary Root does not expect, to sail until about Aug. 25. The commission will not meet until the arrival in London, but it is expected all the preliminaries will be arranged previously.
