BOYS' SHOES!

Every household that contains an irrepressible boy, has to handle the Boys' Shoe proposition. The average boy has no more regard for shoes than if they grew wild and could be had for the plucking. What can we do for the boys? Well, we can give them

THE BEST SHOE FOR THE MONEY THAT WAS EVER PUT ON A BOY'S FOOT.

Of course, they will wear out, but they'll last longer, keep their shape and look better than any other shoe you can buy.

WHY?

They are built for boys; built to kick stones and be rubbed on trees; built for scuffling and playing ball, and all other variations of juvenile locomotion. Everything in these shoes—leathers, stitches, work, etc.—is of the best. A Dollar's worth of wear for every dollar invested. Style, too, just like the men's. Bring the boys to us.

Prices, $1.00 to $2.00.

OLD TIMERS ON THE BENCH

Police Judge Played no Favorites and All Were Fined.

This morning in the Police Court there were four prisoners who implied too freely yesterday and were taken care of by blue-coats.

Edward Quinn was seen yesterday morning side-stepping very close to the edge of Walker's wharf and was cornered by Sergeant Caples. Quinn led for the jaw, but a half Nelson brought him to the boards, where he squirmed for a sixth of a minute before being completely conquered.

Harry Lovett's familiar form adorned the bench today. He got out of jail the other morning and immediately started to make up for lost time.

William Ruddock was found lying in the gutter on the night of last night by officers Rankine and Perry, and this morning admitted that rum was the cause of his slumber.

The name of John Smith, was called and a prisoner stood up. "That is not your name," said the judge. "No," said the prisoner, "my name is Sam Jones and I belong to Fredericton."

Charles McArthur was charged with being drunk in the I. C. R. coach house. He pleaded guilty and was fined $8 or thirty days, the judge remarking that the I. C. R. premises were in an excellent condition.
