$500 FOR HOSPITAL

J. Fred Belyea, the prominent West Side fisherman, yesterday presented Mayor Hayes a check for $500 for the Parks Convalescent Home and the Military Hospital, to be divided between the two institutions or given in its entirety to the one considered most deserving. The mayor will investigate and advise Mr. Belyea as to the best way of disposing of the sum.

All Her Own.
He—What! Another new dress?
She—You needn't be cross. I bought it with my own money.
He—Where did you get it?
She—I sold your fur overcoat.

AT LANCASTER A SUCCESS

The Red Cross fair, held on the grounds of the Deaf and Dumb Institution, Lancaster Heights, last evening was a decided success in spite of the unfavorable weather. The fair was under the auspices of the junior branch of the Lancaster Red Cross Society. Tea was served from 5 to 7 o'clock by the ladies of the Lancaster Red Cross Society. The convener of the general committee was Mrs. J. S. Smith. The tables, nicely arranged on the lawn, were in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. William Baxter, Mrs. Richard Stuart, Mrs. Murray Long, Mrs. Flowers, Ms. Andrew Gregory, Mrs. Charles Belyea, Mrs. Lowell, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. H. M. Stout.

The brown bread and beans were supervised by Mrs. O. D. Hanson and Miss Olive; salads, by Mrs. Armstrong; bread and cake, by Mrs. McDermott and Mrs. W. L. Emerson; tea and coffee, by Mrs. J. V. Anglin; and tickets, by Mrs. Cecil R. McKell.

When supper was over the pile opened, where all kinds of games of chance and money-making devices were carried on. A big ice cream and refreshment booth was under the charge of the young ladies of the junior branch of the Lancaster Red Cross Society.

The band of entertainers from the Happy 8th proved a great attraction to the crowd in their excellent vaudeville show. The grounds were picturesquely decorated with flags and were illuminated in every direction by electric lights. The fair was visible plainly from the city and various other points because of its high elevation and presented a brilliant and striking appearance to the observer. Large crowds arrived from the city and Fairville and the grounds were constantly crowded to capacity.

During the evening the City Cornet Band, under the leadership of Band Master Waddington, provided a choice programme. The fair was very successful and profitable and will be repeated this evening. The money raised by the fair is to be given to the Red Cross.
