Of Portland United Church

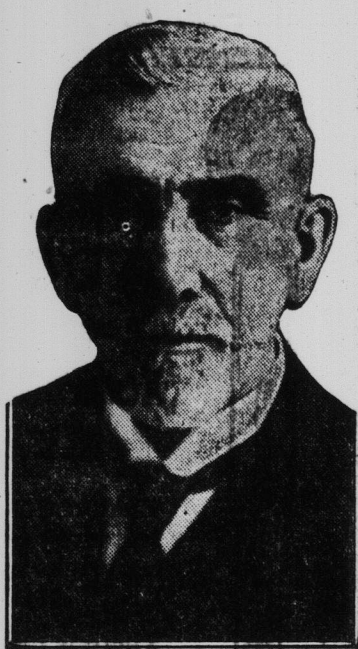

IN MAKING the presentation of a Bible to Henry J. Pratt, for 50 years a member of the Board of Trustees of the Portland United Church, at the 90th anniversary service on Sunday morning, Rev. H. A. Goodwin also presented the following address of appreciation:

PORTLAND UNITED CHURCH

Mr. Henry J. Pratt—It has been brought to the attention of the Board of Trustees that at this anniversary occasion you have completed your 50th year as a trustee of this church. This being a distinction that does not come to many, your fellow members desire to make this public acknowledgment of the favor of God in granting to you such a long and useful life. We presume to show you this token of our respect because you have consistently been a cheerful helper, a valued advisor and a willing servant of the church. We wish also to express to you our high appreciation for the fact that throughout the years you have maintained a steady and helpful interest in all those vital principles which the church is promoting.

It is a visible token of our regard and as an appropriate symbol of your faith and life we present to you a copy of the Word of God. We earnestly wish for you continued bodily health, the favor of Heaven and an eventide in which there are no shadows.

Signed on behalf of the Trustee Board,

Miss Etta Sampson
Heads Girls' Branch of St. George's W. A.

The Girls' Branch W. A. of St. George's church, West Saint John, held its annual meeting last evening in the W. A. room of the church. Miss Etta Sampson, the president, was in the chair and during the evening was made the recipient of a large bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums and a booklet containing an address of appreciation for her four years of office as president.

The address was laudatory in lettering of green and white, the colors of the Branch. Miss Sampson made a suitable reply.

The reports were all very gratifying and showed that all pledges had been met and some increased. The total receipts for the year were $280. The meeting voted $20 to the lantern fund of the Sunday school and a sum of money was also voted for the Inter-Provincial Home at Coveville. A complete outfit, valued at $80, has been sent for an Indian girl at Lac LeLonge. Officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Etta Sampson; vice-president, Miss Ethel James; treasurer, Miss F. Beattie; recording secretary, Miss Louise Oliver; corresponding secretary, Miss Mary Waters; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. L. Brittain; E. C. D. treasurer, Miss Annie Long; Living Message secretary, Miss E. Parks; prayer partner secretary, Miss Louise Allen; mite-box secretary, Miss Florence Gorham.

At the close of the meeting Rev. John Unsworth gave a helpful talk to the members after which dainty refreshments were served.

Interesting Program
At Circle Meeting

The Jessie Chipman Mission Circle of the Portland United Church, had an interesting program at its meeting last evening at the home of Miss Audrey Breen, 84 Moore street. Mrs. George Hartshorn, first vice-president, was in the chair, and the opening devotion were led by Miss Lillian Maxwell. The Study Book Chapter was in charge of Miss Anna Alley, who was assisted by members of the Circle. "Building in Jesus" is the study book being used. Mrs. Percy J. Steel delighted the members with her rendering of a vocal solo and Miss Lillian Bromfield was the accompanist. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

KNOX CHURCH W. M. S.

The program of the meeting of Knox church, W. M. S. last evening dealt with Pormosa, and Miss Florence Caie was in charge. Six other members of the society assisted in giving descriptive readings. The president, Mrs. R. A. Sewell, was in the chair, and the opening devotion were led by Mrs. W. L. Newton. The meeting was well attended and the program was of great interest.

Gyros Observe Ladies Night
With Dinner, Theatre Party
And Dance At Admiral Beatty

ANNUAL Ladies' Night was celebrated by the Gyro Club, their Gyrettes and their "night-be Gyrettes" in right royal fashion last evening and until an early hour this morning. The jamboree consisted of an elaborately spread dinner in the Admiral Beatty Hotel and an en masse theatre party at the Dumbell show at Imperial Theatre, followed by two hours of dancing in the hotel ballroom to the strains of the Dumbell famous jazz orchestra.

The special guests included the principals of the Capt. M. W. Plunkett Dumbell Co., including the genial Captain himself, who had been absent from Saint John the last two engagements. Host Peters and wife of the Admiral Beatty Hotel, and Manager Golding, of the Imperial, and Glen Allan and the others of the visiting Gyro Club, who were all present. The Gyro Club again proved themselves the snappiest kind of hosts and the presence of the three Plunkett brothers, Gyro Stan Bennett, Red Newman, Pat Rafferty, Ross Hamilton, Jack Holland, Glen Allan and the others of the visiting Gyro Club, who were all present, showed an interest quite out of the ordinary.

DELICIOUS MEAL

Fully two hundred sat down to the delicious meal, a feast punctuated with merry quips, rollicking Gyro songs, solos by Gyro Dr. "Percy" Bonnell and Bruce Holden, vocal and violin respectively. Both were uproariously received and Gyro Bonnell's number "Moonlight and Roses" was hummed in by the whole assembly repeatedly.

Mrs. Bonnell and Morris Watson were the accompanists. There was not a dull moment at the tables and Chairman Jim Robertson, who was acting for President Don Armstrong, convalescent from a recent illness, had his hands and mind full keeping the jollity within bounds. The whole dining assemblage was very pretty to look upon as the diners were in evening attire, snowy, glistening tables, flower-decked and lighted softly tinted.

After the dinner the whole party repaired to the Imperial Theatre next door where they occupied a reservation in the front of the lower floor, a group that nearly half filled that section of the house. It was a large occasion for the young hosts, their escorts and guests, perhaps the most successful combination party of the kind carried out in Saint John for some years. During the program a few local hits were shorted from the stage undoubtedly of Gyro concoction and if the whole audience did not "get" them, the theatre party did.

ENJOY DANCING.

But this was not all. As stated at the outset the Gyros and their guests romped back into the hotel again for two solid hours the waxen floor of the Georgian Ballroom was kept warm with footstomping and waltzes. The Dumbells were there too and the jazz

AVOIDING BREAKAGE
When washing the glassware dip the pieces in the warm water and they will be set on the inside and outside at the same time. Unequal expansion of the glass caused by one part being suddenly heated is what breaks them.

Exchange Sale Is Held By Women's Institute Here

An exchange sale of useful and fancy articles, chiefly those made by the members, was the special feature of the extra meeting of the Women's Institute held yesterday afternoon at the Health Centre, with Mrs. T. N. Vincent, president, in the chair.

Members brought in chiefly articles which they had made themselves, and ten per cent of the amount for which the articles were sold was given to the institute funds. Many visitors were present and the meeting was also a pleasant social occasion. "The True Story of Confederation," by A. P. Patterson was read by Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor at the opening of the meeting, and it was believed that the Saint John Women's Institute was the first local organization to have their recent publication read at its meetings. Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin gave a much appreciated talk on the cost and production of a good local bread, giving interesting side-lights on the baking industry. Mrs. McLaughlin is the first woman in Canada to be elected a vice-president of the federated board of the Dominion Bakers' Association, and she told of the school of bakery which that association has established at Guelph, Ont., to teach the latest scientific methods in making bread and give instruction in every branch of commercial baking.

Mrs. McLaughlin, who is a member of the Women's Institute, warmly commended that organization for its part in bringing about compulsory wrapping of bread in Saint John, and the appointment of a woman food inspector.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. McLaughlin was hostess for the serving of afternoon tea and Miss Frances had an opportunity of tasting the delicacies of which she had spoken.

Portfolio From Old Country To
Red Cross Here

The English children's portfolio is the work of Junior Red Cross members of intermediate age and is a very creditable production. It is entirely a home made affair. The cover is a natural colored linen on which the Juniors have painted the coat of arms of Chipping Norton, and the symbols of their school, which is a Church of England Institution. Their title is very prettily inscribed in illuminated lettering on the cover.

The pages of the portfolio are of strong red paper and the symbols are so arranged that it would be easy to add extra leaves of the work written and most interesting little articles by the Juniors of Chipping Norton are pasted in with the following captions: "They give a pleasing glimpse of the life and surroundings in their Oxfordshire town."

There are articles telling of the olden days in Chipping Norton, recounting its progress and industries and telling of topical events. Photographs of the Junior members and views of Chipping Norton, some maps, drawings and some paintings of birds are also shown in the portfolio.

Several Groups
Are Addressed
By Miss Hasell

Miss Hasell greatly interested the various groups of people she addressed yesterday as she told of her own experiences in caravan Sunday school work in the Diocese of Kootenay in British Columbia during the last summer and spoke of the work accomplished by the seven caravans which were in use in the western provinces.

This work was started by Miss Hasell in Saskatchewan in 1920, when she took the first van and started on pioneer endeavor. Yesterday Miss Hasell addressed the pupils of Netherwood and Rotheray Collegiate Schools in the morning. In the afternoon she spoke before the St. John's Stone Church W. A. and in the evening addressed a meeting in St. George's hall in West Saint John. While in the city Miss Hasell has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. L. Fleming at Stone Church rectory.

In St. George's hall Miss Hasell gave an illustrated address. Rev. W. H. Sampson was the chairman and the lantern was operated by Miss Frances Weaver. At the close of the lecture addresses of appreciation were given by Dean Sampson, Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, Commissioner W. L. Harding and Stanley Olive. There was a very large audience present and a standing vote of thanks was accorded Miss Hasell.

FIRST MEETING.

The first meeting of the Young People's Society of Knox church was held on Monday night with the president, John Gibb, in the chair. General business was transacted and plans were made for the winter's activities. The honorary president, Rev. W. L. Newton, gave a very interesting talk. After the business session a social hour was spent, after which refreshments were served by a committee of ladies from the Ladies' Society. A sing-song was enjoyed and everybody present participated. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

November Means Winter Wraps—
How About Yours

YOU only saw her for a moment. She passed you on the avenue, but as you walked along that pleasing impression lingered.

There are always people who stand out in a crowd.

Is it their clothes—the way they wear them? More than likely it's the care their things receive. Garments that are regularly refreshed by skillful cleaning and pressing keep their distinction.

Your overcoat or fur wrap may need only a thorough cleaning to bring back that air of quality.
