The Chestnut Canoe Company of this city is remodelling the wooden building on King street, formerly occupied by the Monitor Mfg. Co., to take care of expanding business. A new wooden building also is being erected near the factory on York street for the same purpose.

The two will take care of a fifty per cent increase in output. It was the intention of this company to erect a new brick factory alongside the present factory, but excessive building costs made it undesirable to proceed with the undertaking.

Chief Clerk and Game Warden L. A. Gagnon is back after protesting forty cases of violation of the forest fire laws. Thirty-three convictions were obtained, three cases were withdrawn and three were dismissed. One was reserved for judgment.

The charges were setting fires without permit, refusing to assist in fighting fire and neglecting to keep fires within proper limits.

A case for killing moose out of season also was heard, judgment being deferred.

Carl Evans, who was drowned near St. John Sunday, was a former resident of Fredericton and Devon. He was here for a time last autumn.

Shamrock First Over

Line in Deciding Race

When the boats passed the light, Shamrock had increased her lead slightly.

W. H. Hallett, who reported both boats were moving slowly. The wind was puffy and indications were that the race could not be concluded within the six hour limit.

Early Reports.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 26.—A brisk "jockey" breeze about twelve knots came out of the northwest early today, ironed out the surface of the sea, troubled up by Saturday's storm, and provided fine wind conditions for the final contest between Shamrock IV, and the American defender Resolute for the America's cup.

With the wind holding from the northwest, a run of fifteen miles seaward and then to windward home was indicated.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 26.—Charles E. Nicholson, designer of Shamrock IV, still insists that the present races have been little more than trial races for many years. He thinks that in all future America's cup races, the contenders should be manned entirely by a crew from the public rather than by professional sailors.

Should Sir Thomas fail today to win the race, and lose the cup, he suggests that the Irish boat enter the challenge in a series of races, with the Resolute and Vanitie alone, for cups offered by local yacht clubs.

It has also been suggested that all three yachts be sailed by professional skippers.

Sir Thomas is said to have spent approximately $100,000 in his latest attempt to lift the cup and yachting magazine asserts Shamrock IV, in the interest of yacht designing, should have had a series of races with Resolute and other sloops of United States design.

As a member of the New York Yacht Club, Sir Thomas can enter Shamrock in the club's races.

Betting Light.

New York, July 26.—(Canadian Press.)—Betting this morning on the final race for the America's Cup is 3 to 1 on Resolute with few takers. Even money is offered that the defender will finish first regardless of her time allowance.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 26.—Shamrock after getting up her mainsail, took a tow at 9:55 a. m. and headed for Ambrose Channel Lightship. Resolute meanwhile had got her big cloth up, ready to drop her mooring buoy.

As the morning wore on the wind began to haul into the east, and Shamrock, after rounding the Sandy Hook light, dropped her tow and headed for Covey Island.

Jersey weather sharp figured that the wind might get into the southeast by noon, the time set for the start, which would give the yachts a beat to windward from the east at this time and prospects for a fast race were not so bright.

Resolute dropped her moorings at 10:15 and sailed away toward the point. A tugboat steamed along awaiting a call for a tow.

Resolute took a tow and both yachts went off toward the starting line.

IN IRELAND

Dublin, July 26.—At Newport, Tipperary, Saturday night, a gang of men sheared the hair from a girl because she was keeping company with a policeman. Exasperated at the outrage, soldiers and police turned out and burned the houses of all the principal Sinn Feiners, causing them to fly for their lives.

Two coast guard stations in the Bearhaven district were raided yesterday. In one of the raids, at Ballygarrett, Chief Officer Stewing and Petty Officer Brown were killed.

Washington, July 26.—(Canadian Press.)—At a reception given last night by Eamon De Valera in honor of Archbishop Mannix, of Melbourne, Australia, the Irish were willing to make peace with Great Britain on certain terms.

"I have already indicated my belief that the Irish people would be willing to receive British anxiety about the future in so far as that anxiety is legitimate or genuine by agreeing to a stipulation much as that of the first article in the Platt amendment.

"I have no hesitation myself in recommending such a course to the Irish people, and if peace were signed on such terms I would immediately myself to the fostering of the same good relations between Ireland and Britain as exist between Ireland and the rest of the world."

The Platt amendment was incorporated in the constitution of the Cuban republic as a condition precedent to the withdrawal of United States troops from Cuba and the recognition of Cuban independence by the United States.

London, July 26.—Sir Horace Plunkett, writing to the Times, on the subject of labor's Irish conference with Premier Lloyd George, says that the British people must be reminded of two reasons why the Sinn Fein peace-maker, asked for by the premier, is "not on the bridge between two extremes."

The first reason, says the writer, is that until recently anyone putting himself in the position of peace-maker between the government and the Sinn Fein would have been summarily jailed without charge or trial, and secondly, because the Irish people have lost all faith in the promises of the British government.

Sir Horace Plunkett said before the Irish tragedy was wistfully depicted by the rejection of the minister's offer, "it would be well if the British people ponder these two things carefully."

Referring to the labor leader, J. H. Thomas, Sir Horace points out that speaking for the British people, Mr. Thomas would at least be heard with respect.

Dublin, July 26.—Arthur Griffith, the Sinn Fein leader, describes as an incantation reports that authoritative attempts have been made to negotiate with Sinn Feiners for a settlement.

EASTERN CANNERIES WAS LOSING VENTURE

(Fredericton Gleaner)

The Eastern Canning building and property on York street, which was formerly occupied by the Scarles Provisional, Limited, has been purchased by H. J. Morgan, who recently sold the Pine Grove property at Douglas for the York Municipal Home.

The sale was completed by D. W. Oils as assignee, but he declined this morning to name the purchase price. It is understood, however, that while the property is valued at $25,000 for assessment purposes this year, the amount actually paid was not in excess of $14,000. There is a three story building of concrete and wood fitted for stores and factory purposes, with rights of way to both York and King streets, and it is understood Mr. Morgan has bought with no plans except investment.

With the sale of the property Mr. Oils said this morning it would not be long before the affairs of the Eastern Canning, Ltd., are wound up. The remaining assets will be sold next Saturday and it is expected the creditors will not realize over 30 or 35 cents on the dollar, while the shareholders will get no return. The liabilities are said to have amounted to over $80,000.
