PTE. T. MCKAY DICKSON HOME FROM THE WAR

One of the Gallant Men of Passchendaele, Where He Was Wounded

Pte. T. McKay Dickson, of Chatham, late of the 26th battalion and one of the heroes of Passchendaele, where he was wounded, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McKay, 114 St. James street. Private McKay sailed for the 12th battalion in February, 1916, left in October for overseas, and on August 26, 1917 was drafted to the 26th battalion. He was wounded in the right leg and foot in the battle of Passchendaele, in November of that year. The intervening time has been spent in French and English hospitals. After a few days' furlough at home he will go to Fredericton for further treatment.

PTE. WILLIAM BISHOP HIT IN HAND AND HEAD

Young St. John Soldier Had Been Very Short Time in France

Private William Bishop has been officially reported admitted to No. 54 general hospital, Aubergue, on October 2, suffering from gunshot wounds in the right hand and head. The young soldier, who has attained only his twentieth year, went over with a draft from the first depot battalion and was transferred to an infantry battalion at the front. His experience in the firing line has been brief as he had been in France for a short time only and the nature of his wounds probably will result in his being sent to England to recuperate.

FOR FIRST CONTINGENT MEN

St. John, N. B., Oct. 15, 1918.
To the Editor of The Times:
Sir—A little while ago I received a letter and verses from one of my old men in France in which he plainly set forth their views as to parcels sent to them (the boys of the first contingent) in whom no one seems to take any interest. Mrs. Young of the West Side Soldiers' Comforts is sending Christmas comforts and will send a parcel to any first contingent, officer or man, if she can secure his address. I therefore send any relatives of these men, who have put in near four years in the trenches in France to forward their addresses direct to Mrs. Young, Gullford street, West St. John.

Each Christmas we see subscriptions for this regiment and that regiment but never one for the first contingent men. Now here is the chance, and if any other society wishes to assist the boys now is the time to think of it. The boys of the infantry will be hard to locate as they are so split up, but their relatives can assist in this; the artillery can be reached by a direct gift to the 1st Mountain Heavy Battery in which are many of the artillerymen, and also by sending to Lieut.-Col. J. J. Penhale, O. C. 1st Division Ammunition Column, through whose hands pass most of the first artillery, and I am sure Colonel Penhale will see that they get the parcels sent as he is in touch with the batteries and also has a lot of the originals with him at the present time.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
Yours,
E. J. PUDDY,
Late Sergt. 1st C. F. A.

ST. JOHN MEN IN CASUALTY LIST

Several Are Reported Wounded and Are Very Ill

Families of A. J. Newlands, W. R. Melanson, Richard Joyce, E. G. McEachern and George Ralph Receive Word

James Newlands, inspector for the department of public works under the civic administration and presently engaged supervising the reconstruction of the Eastern S. S. Company pier, Reed's Point, has received word that his son, Archibald J. Newlands, has been wounded in the back in the latest fighting in France.

The injured young man is twenty-three years of age and enlisted in the 4th Siege Battery under Major Louis W. Barker. He has been fighting for nearly three years and has seen a lot of strenuous artillery service.

The Newlands family is Scotch in nativity and came to St. John some years ago. Their home had been at Back Bay until five years ago when they moved to a splendid dwelling. Their mother died but neither of these calamities prevented the remaining members of the household from answering the heroic call of Mother England. The father, a man of proven worth in construction matters, joined the 2nd Pioneer Battalion, the boy joined the 4th Siege Battery and the daughter, Jennie W., enlisted as a nursing sister and is now doing service in No. 2 Depot, Boulogne. While a Times reporter was talking with Inspector Newlands—whose service in khaki ended more than eighteen months ago—on the Reed's Point job this morning, the parent learned for the first time of his son's casualty. At the same juncture a batch of mail from the front was handed him by an office messenger. Opening the field envelopes, Mr. Newlands said: "These messages are all cheerful, so I guess my boy and girl are all right in spite of the telegram about the wounding. I am glad to hear the patriotic spirit of resignation and firm yet tender manner in which the soldier-veterans received this morning's news second-handed, as it were, and the unobtrusive way in which he referred to his whole family in the service, gave still another reflex view of the great and glorious struggle that is preserving to us our happy homes and long-time liberties, and what that ungrudging service is meaning to so many heroic households right here in St. John."

Pte. W. R. Melanson.
Mrs. Ellen Melanson, who resides at 187 Chesley street, received a telegram this morning from Ottawa informing her that her son, Pte. William Raymond Melanson, had been admitted to Lord Derby War Hospital in Warrington, England, on Sept. 30, 1918. No particulars were given regarding his condition. Private Melanson went overseas with the 55th battalion and has been in active service for nearly three years. He was twice wounded, first in the Battle of Vimy Ridge, and again about a year ago. The first time he sustained a wound in the abdomen and the last time a gunshot wound in the thigh.

Pte. Richard Joyce.
Richard Joyce of 235 Rodney street received a telegram on Sunday stating that his cousin, Private Richard Joyce, was officially reported admitted to No. 54 general hospital, suffering from gunshot wounds in the breast. Private Joyce enlisted in St. John.

John McEachern, 546 Main street, was advised yesterday from Ottawa that his youngest son, Pte. Edgar G. McEachern, had been admitted to No. 6 Derby War Hospital, London, on Oct. 2, suffering from gunshot wounds in the left arm. Private McEachern went overseas as a member of a Scottish battalion recruited in Nova Scotia and with that
