NINTH CONGRESS TO BE HELD IN ROME

Mrs. Catt's Call to International Woman Suffrage Alliance in May Next.

The following is the call of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt to the women to send delegates to the ninth congress of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, in Rome, May 12 to 19.

"The International Woman Suffrage Alliance calls upon its twenty-eight National Auxiliaries, and upon the twenty new societies either provisionally affiliated or applying for affiliation, to send to its ninth congress, to be held in Rome, May 12 to 19, 1923, their full quota of duly accredited delegates, and to send official delegates. The alliance will equally welcome fraternal delegates from the governments of all nations to send official delegates. The alliance will equally welcome fraternal delegates from women's international associations as from national associations which support the object of the alliance, together with personal supporters of the movement."

"At the Geneva Congress in 1920, twenty-two new suffrage victories were announced. At Rome the alliance will celebrate the establishment of equal suffrage for women throughout the United States of America; in Ireland and in Bombay, Madras, Transvaal, Java, and Ceylon, the first eastern countries to give votes to women."

"We shall also rejoice with the women of Denmark on their new right to equal pay and equal work in government service; with the women of Australia that they can now return women to certain state parliaments; with the women of Japan on having received the right to attend political meetings; with the women of Germany, Belgium, Austria, Spain, Portugal, Argentina and India on the recent admission of women to the legal profession; with the women of the United States of America, which has given the lead to other countries in giving to married women the right to their own nationality; with the women of Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Roumania, France, Great Britain, Uruguay, Australia and the governments of which have appointed women representatives to the assembly, the commissions or conferences of the League of Nations; and with the women of many countries on further steps taken towards our ultimate goal—the establishment of a real equality of liberties, status and opportunities between men and women."

"Women members of parliament will tell of their work in the legislatures of many nations; women from Eastern nations will set forth the great progress made in their countries. The congress will make practical plans for giving help internationally to the women of the unfranchised countries in their efforts to secure the political vote. Special sessions will deal with the question of equal pay and right to work, moral questions; nationality of married women; the economic position of the wife and the illegitimate child; the relation of enfranchised women to the political parties, and what enfranchised women can do to forward the programme of the alliance; and decisions will be taken to outline the future policy of the alliance."

"The vote is our first objective; but much remains to be done before, unhampered by shackling prejudice and sentimental taboos, women are really free to share equally with men in all spheres the responsibilities of building up a better world."

"Come, therefore, all who care for the honor and freedom of women, to lend your aid in the great campaign of the Latin women; and here, in the Eternal City which saw the dawn of European civilization, affirm your belief in the greatness of woman's contribution to the ideal of a civilization which shall be world-wide and founded on a justice and equality."

STOCK THEFT ALLEGED

Boston, Feb. 6.—Larceny of 100,000 shares of stock valued at $400,000 was charged today against James J. Benishka and George L. Ware, stock brokers. Neither is a member of the Boston Stock Exchange. It is alleged that they stole the stock from John C. Stoumets, another broker, as a result of a conspiracy. Benishka surrendered and Ware was brought to court from Chestnut street jail, where he was confined on a civil process.

Nothing Like These Sale Chesterfields!

You may find their match by travelling as far as we did—but not at Marcus prices. For with Marcus it is February 1923—the only two Sale weeks of the year when we have to do ourselves proud once and for all. Far and wide we hunted out the best values for the year and—(here's a secret)—we discovered some of them sounded just too good to be true, so the advertisements very wisely understate the extent of the Sale reductions. Find out for yourself—the least off is twenty per cent.

One Suite, $129.50
A Chesterfield Suite at $129.50! Look it over in the windows. Full web and spring construction, Marshall spring loose cushions, tapestried all over in flowered foliage and not another word needed to sell the trio at $129.50

Cane de Luxe, $275
A $365 Suite with rocker for $275—framed in Walnut finish with cane backs and side panels; two square bolsters and upholstery in broadcast Silk Mohair; large Royal Blue leafing on taupe. Save $90 at $275

Solid Comfort, $198
A massive Suite with spring pillow arms, finest loose spring cushions and thorough inside and out finish—a splendid tapestry with a rose motive in moire effects, featuring warm undertones in both bloom and leaf. $275 Marcus value. Sale— $198

Aristocracy, $299
Two toned Silk Mohair of permanent beauty. Taupe sides, lower front and rear. On the barrel backs, spring seating, loose cushions and pillow arms, a ground of Taupe hand-blocked geometrical vine and blossom medallions of black and blue touched with Taupe. One of the chairs with wing head rests. A $375 Marcus value on Sale at $299

Liquor Tale With A St. John End

U. S. Officials Question Morris in New York About Bermuda Business.

New York, Feb. 6.—Customs and Treasury Department officials yesterday attempted to establish that huge shipments of liquor from Bermuda, consigned to St. John, N. B., were being questioned Morris Stern, proprietor of drug store and two grocery stores here, on his return from Bermuda. In his baggage were found a bill of lading and bills of sale made in Bermuda for 4,245 cases of liquor recently cleared from Bermuda for St. John.

Stern said he was agent for the Great Western Wine Company, a Canadian firm, and that he regularly handled large shipments for the company from Bermuda. He denied that the Marlon Mohler, one of the company's ships, had joined the run fleet of Sandy Hook instead of proceeding to St. John. He also denied that he had boasted of Bermuda of having made $1,000,000 out of London whiskey sold in the United States.

Stern said he always paid cash for liquor bought in Bermuda, and that $75,000 was the largest amount he had handled at one time. He said he did not receive a salary but was paid according to the duties he performed. He said the Great Western Wine Company had offices in Montreal, Regina, Vancouver, St. John and St. Pierre, but none in Bermuda.

The Marlon Mohler was picked up by customs boats several months ago beyond the three mile limit and her cargo of liquor seized. Later the cargo was released through intercession of the British Government.

Early last month, customs guards identified seven barrels of whiskey taken from the schooner Ina and Ida here as part of the cargo of the Marlon Mohler.

A campaign to raise $100,000 as a fund from which 50 High School students may be enrolled each year, by money scholarships, to complete courses, which otherwise would have to be ended for lack of funds, is under way in Providence, R. I. So far as is known in Providence, the project is the first of its kind in the country.

The system has made a good start, seven children in 1921 being given scholarships which allowed them to remain in school, and in 1922, eleven were so assisted.

State Commissioner of Education E. R. Ranger, of Rhode Island in speaking of the plan said—"It promises to supply a grave need at a weak place in public education. While ninety-six per cent of the public children from seven to fourteen years of age attend school, only sixty per cent of those in their fifteenth year, and forty per cent of those in their sixteenth year, are enrolled in school. Obviously any extension of school education must be for these years."

ANNIVERSARY OF FAMOUS AUTHOR
(Ottawa Journal)
This year marks the 100th since Hans Christian Anderson made his first appearance as an author. He was just 17 years old when he contributed a tale to a publication called The Day. Of the many interesting relics in the Anderson Museum at Odense, the baptismal and confirmation papers tell a story by themselves. From the latter one learns that while Hans Christian was a good boy, his behavior was somewhat better than his industry in school. Then there are other papers indicating that the young man has dramatic aspirations, but his career in that respect proved short lived.

The inherent democracy of humanity decreed that Odense, the most patriotic city of Denmark, should become known to the world, because of the genius of one most lowly born. There is a fascinating literature about this mark part of what Odense stood for, Chivalry and conquest were the two predominant traits of the city and her people. The splendid Church of St. Canute was built in memory of the martyr king who conquered England.
