

MC 2035

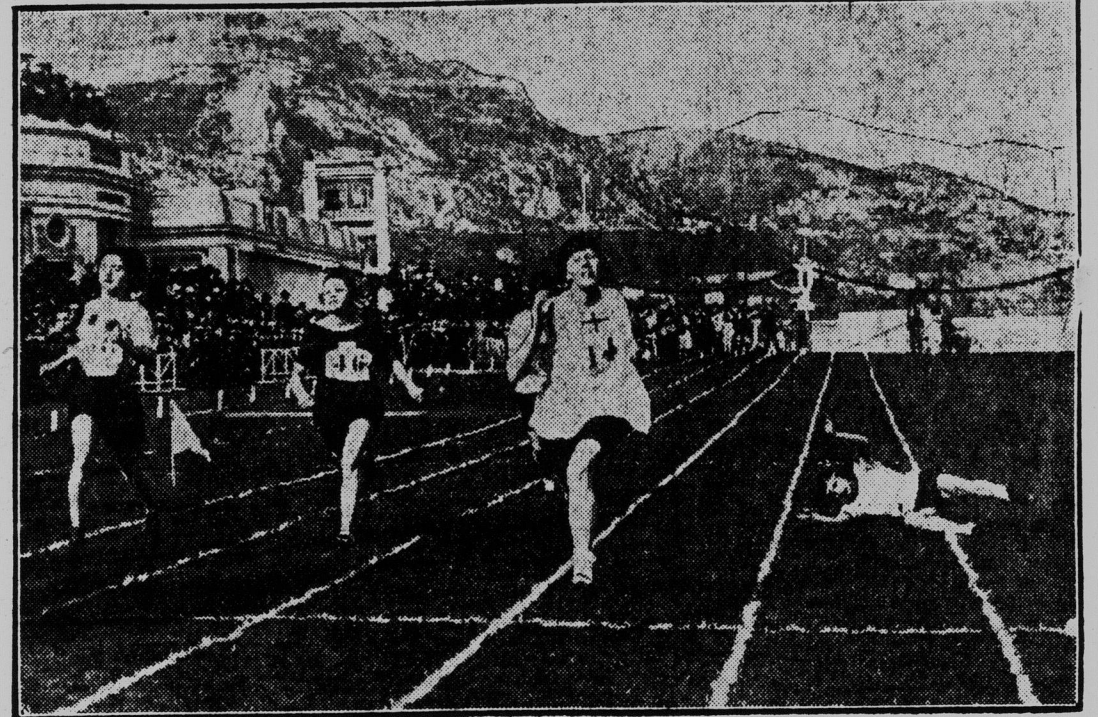

News of the World in Picture

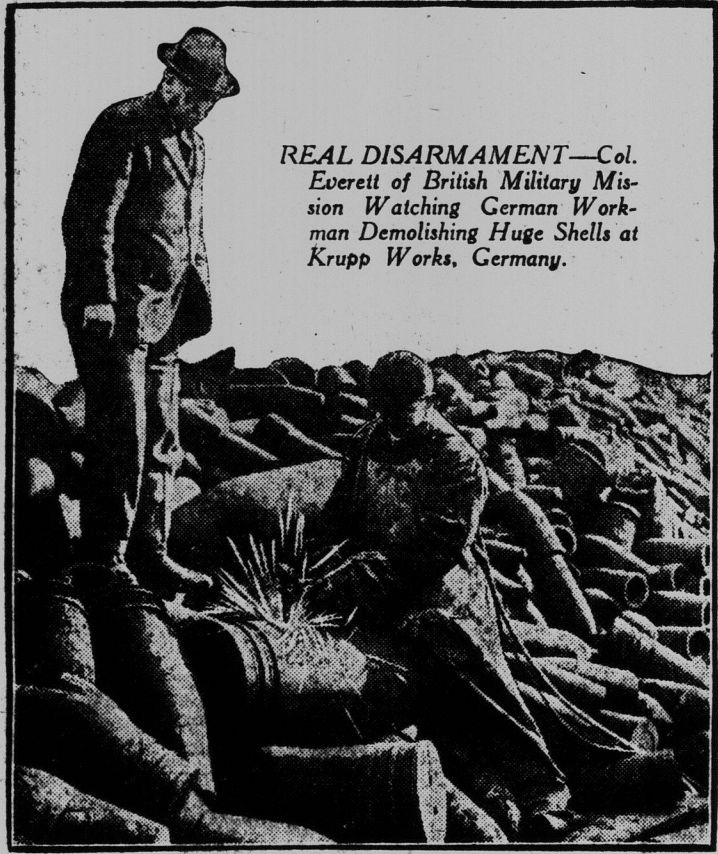

"OH, TO BE IN ENGLAND, NOW THAT APRIL'S HERE"—Easter Holidays Brought Joy to Children at Thorpess.

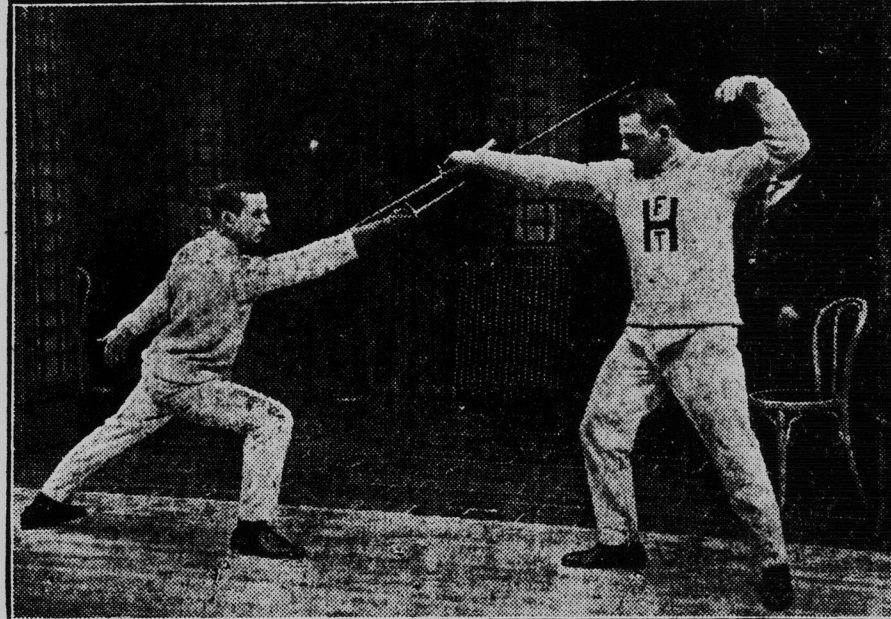

"HERO." Owned by Dennis Kane of St. John, N.B., Was Awarded a $250 Silver-mounted Collar for Saving 92 Lives by Swimming Out With a Rope to the Mail Steamer Ethic, Wrecked Off Newfoundland in December, 1919.

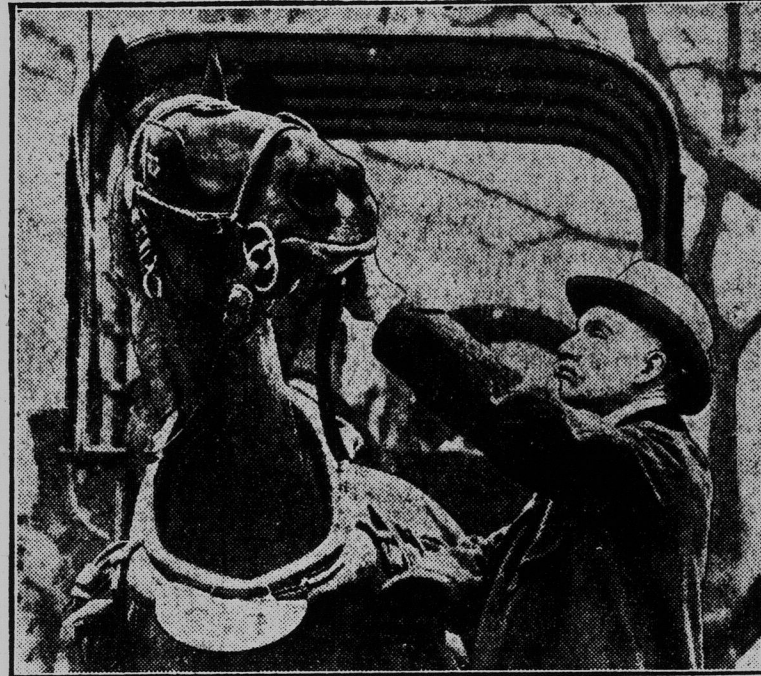

FEMININE SPORTS CARNIVAL AT MONTE CARLO—Distress Signals From One Competitor in Race.

REAL DISARMAMENT—Col. Everett of British Military Mission Watching German Workmen Demolishing Huge Shells at Krupp Works, Germany.

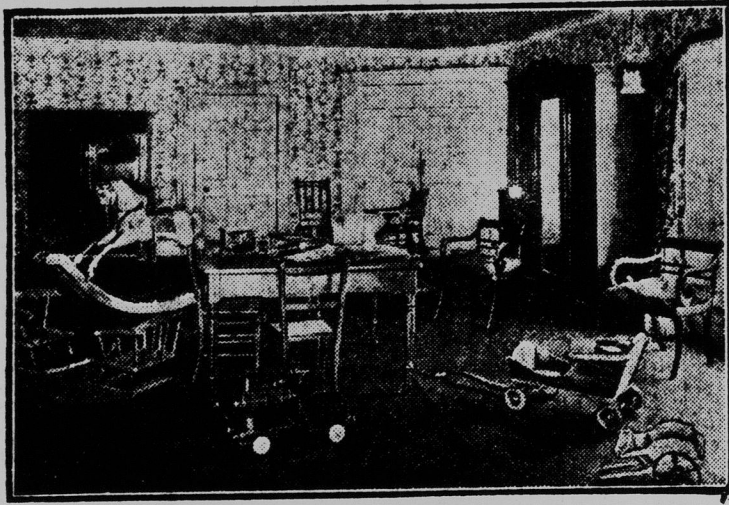

TWIN BROTHERS FENCE—E. H. Lane, Captain, and E. L. Lane, on Harvard's Fencing Team for Intercollegiate Tourney.

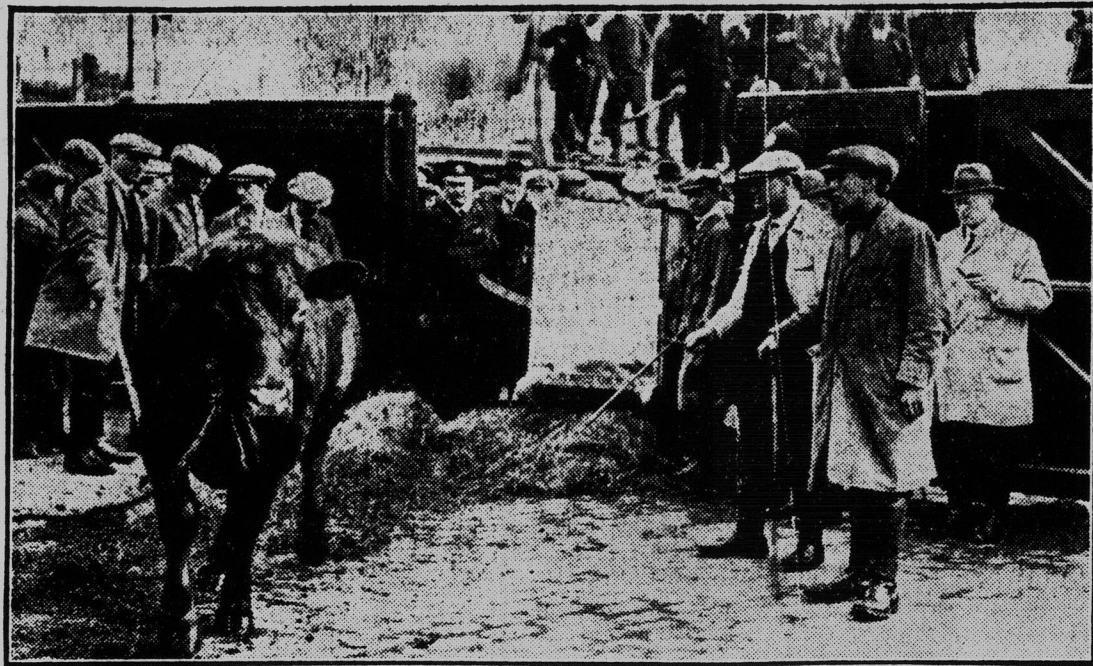

A STUDY IN EXPRESSIONS—General Sir E. Bethune Judging in Van Horse Parade in London.

ANOTHER HINT FROM EGYPT—A Print Charming Worn by Miss Knapp, Winner of Atlantic City Beauty Contest. Bag Also Carries Egyptian Influence.

FOR BABY LASCELLES—Day Nursery at Goldborough Hall, Where Princess Mary's Baby Plays.

CIVIC WELCOME FOR CANADIAN CATTLE—First Shipment Since Lifting of British Embargo, Being Landed at Glasgow.

HISTORIC SPOTS IN CANADA (No. 45)—Finkle's Point, Near Adolphustown, Ont., Where First Steamboat to Ply Waters of Lake Ontario Was Built and Launched.

CANADIAN COLFERS IN SOUTH—W. C. Ross of Montreal, President of Kenawake Golf Club, at Augusta, Ga.

AT THE GRAVE OF JEFFERSON—On the 180th Birthday Anniversary of the Second President of U. S. There Were Many Visitors at Monticello, Virginia, the Old Home Which Will Likely Be Purchased as National Memorial.

BRITISH AIRCRAT DIRECTOR, Sir Arthur Duckham, Arrives in New York.

ON THE FIRE LINE—Toronto Firemen in the Midst of a Recent Blaze.