GEO. S. CUSHING IS
THE FUEL ADMINISTRATOR

Premier Foster announced last evening that George S. Cushing, of St. John, had been appointed fuel controller for the province and would assume the duties of this office immediately. This action on the part of the provincial government follows closely a conference held last week on the coal situation.

INITIAL SHOWING OF AUTUMN MILLINERY

At the M. R. A. Ltd. Store
Today

For this season it seems that autumn millinery fashions in both imported and domestic modes demand two standards —close fitting and broad brimmed hats.
Visitors to the M. R. A. Ltd., millinery salon today could not help but notice that both modes are strikingly attractive.
In this fashionable assemblage panne velvet, hatter's plush and rich metallic brocades figured largely as foundations for brims and crowns of many stunning creations. Touches of hand-trich fringes, cabochons, motifs of applied kid and other novel trimming effects added a distinguished touch greatly to be admired.

New colors were in evidence everywhere and conspicuous among them were woods browns, aluminum grey, brass, bright red and Russian green.
Aluminum and other metallic effects were seen on feathers, ornaments, fabrics, ribbons and laces. In fact, these metallic effects glint in some attractive form from almost every hat.
A foreign note was introduced in the popular turbans and toques of Russian Persian, Egyptian and Chinese origin, however the large hat of cavalier style or fashioned with uneven brims and slightly rolled backs demands special attention.

Women who were not able to see this splendid display of advance millinery to-day will still have an opportunity on Friday, and whether you live in St. John or just happen to be visiting the exhibition, you are cordially invited to be present.

WELL WORTH SEEING

M. R. A. Ltd. Exhibition
Booth One of Very Decided Merit.

Departing from their usual line of exhibiting costly furs, oriental rugs, women's clothing and such things, which has proven so interesting in the past, M. R. A. Ltd., has introduced a decidedly interesting innovation in their exhibit this year.

The booth has been converted into a thoroughly up-to-date nursery with a nurse in attendance. The walls of the nursery are in old ivory shade with quaint nursery figures bordering the top.
A handsome blue plush carpet on the floor serves well to show off the handsome ivory furniture and the dainty fixings of pink and blue. All around pretty toys and children's garments give the appearance of a room that is appreciated by the little folk and a sleeping baby in the bassinet adds the wanted finishing touch.

Every afternoon at four and evening at 7:30 a fashion parade takes place.
Five beautiful children, whose ages range from three to thirteen years, act as models and show to fine advantage the decided charm of the garments they are displaying. The children first appear on the upper balcony, then on the stairway leading to the nursery, then in the nursery itself, where they are left to apparently enjoy the many things put there for their comfort and pleasure. A miniature telephone, a tiny desk, a table set for tea and the sleeping baby occupies their time naturally until the next model is ready to appear.

Costs, frock and hats are in this way most attractively displayed and the performance is concluded by a dainty folk dance in which all the girls take part.
M. R. A. Ltd., has been receiving numerous congratulations on the success of this wonderfully attractive exhibit, and leave their many friends in happy anticipation of more pleasant surprises to come.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SYMPHONY CONCERT SEAT SALE FRIDAY

It has been found necessary to defer the box office sale of tickets for the Boston Symphony orchestra ensemble concert at the Imperial from today at 10 a.m. until tomorrow (Friday) at the same opening hour. This postponement of one day only will not make any difference in the choice of seats, it is a matter of printing, etc. The Boston artists will be here for one night only. Unless tickets are purchased early choice locations will be scarce in a short while. And if music lovers neglect hearing this remarkable programme by fifteen leading players from the Boston Symphony — active leading members—they will have cause to regret it when the public's verdict is given Tuesday.

MARVEN BOOTH THE CENTRE OF ATTRACTION

White Lily Biscuit and Havelock Cider Being Served Free at Big Fair.

One of the most attractive exhibits at the big fair is that of J. A. Marven, Limited, biscuit manufacturers of Moncton, St. John, Halifax and Montreal.
Their booth, located opposite the main entrance to the exhibition, affords opportunity for the pleasing display of many varieties of White Lily Biscuit, as well as signs and banners of striking appearance. But visitors to the fair are not obliged to be seen only, for behind the spotless white counters are several tables at which dainty White Lily Biscuits and Have-lock cider are served without money and without price.
Among the lines of biscuits served are Orange Delicio, Alexander Fingers, Tip Top and Coconut Cream bars. In apple and grape cider and orange phosphate. Hundreds have already taken advantage of the opportunity to sample Marven's White Lily Biscuits and Havelock cider and it is safe to say that everybody has been more than pleased with the refreshments provided.

The Marven booth will be open to visitors for the remainder of the week and those who have not already done so are cordially invited to partake of the White Lily Biscuits and Have-lock cider which are being served.

At one side of the Marven booth is an electric piano, which furnishes excellent music. This piano, which winds itself, and will play continually, seems to come near to perpetual motion, the discovery of which was such a sad some thirty years ago.

NO SHOW, FANS PROTEST.

Quebec, Sept. 7. — Wilfrid Cabana failed to show up last night for a strong man contest for the championship of the world with Victor Delamarre. Fans made demonstrations in front of the house of J. H. Paquet, one of the pro-motors, and were dispersed by the police.

Two Bulls Fall Into Well.

London, Aug. 16.—(By Mail) — The chase of one bull by another ended in a remarkable manner at Shrewsbury recently.

Both pursued and pursuer dashed through the Lion Hotel yard into a shed containing an open well. The first bull fell down the well and the second one followed it.

Mr. Farrell of Shrewsbury Abattoir, descended the well, and fixed ropes to the bull's horns. They were both hauled out alive.

The bull that had the top berth appeared unhurt, and began contentedly to munch hay. The other lost a horn and was lamed.
