ADDRESS OF THE CANADIAN CONFERENCE
OF
THE PRIMITIVE METHODIST CHURCH,
TO THE ENGLISH CONFERENCE.

GRACE, MERCY AND PEACE BE MULTIPLIED.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

We feel the greatest interest in addressing you officially once more; and whilst this duty is one of annual occurrence, yet we now proceed to discharge it with all the earnestness of sincere attachment and veneration.

We are grateful for the wise and affectionate reply to our last annual address, published in your minutes of Conference; and for those fatherly and judicious councils which you have tendered to us the past year on various matters of management, through the officers constituting your General and Missionary Committees.

If in some instances we have not precisely and promptly carried out every recommendation, it
