

- 3 -

person with less than a grade three education would have considerable difficulty not realizing that these were correct.

On the basis of this argument, sir, I submit that the charge of desertion has not been proven and that the lesser one of absence without leave should be brought in. That is all sir.