COLLAPSE OF POOL Broker Punished by Governors of New York Stock Exchange.

New York, Feb. 17 .- Henry S. Haskins, board member of the stock exchange firm of Lathrop, Haskins & Co., which failed with the collapse of the recent Columbus & Hocking Coal and Iron pool, was declared ineligible for reinstatement on the exchange yesterday because of his firm's connection with the fiasco. As Mr. Haskins was the only member of the firm having a seat on the exchange the action s equivalent to expulsion. His seat will come a member of the exchange again.

The report of the committee on insolvency submitted to the governing committee of the stock exchange and approved by that body says: "The failure of the firm of Lathrop, Haskins & Co., of which Henry Haskins was the floor member, wa caused by reckless and unbusinesslike dealings, and Henry S. Haskins is de-clared ineligible for reinstatement." Lathrop, Haskins & Co. were the managers of the Columbus & Hocking pools, according to testimony recently brought out, and James R. Keene manipulated the stock in the market. Two other ex-change houses, J. M. Fiske & Co., and Roberts, Hall & Criss, have yet to appear before the governors of the exchange for their participation in the pool. Several other members of the exchange, whose connection with the movement in the shares of the company was less direct, also are to come up for trial. When the seat of Mr. Haskins is sold by settlement of any obligations due to other members. The balance, if any, will be turned over to Mr. Haskins. ANTI-ALIEN BILL

Indignation in Japan Does Not Cause Any Surprise at Washington. nouncement that the Japanese people and press are indignant over the Hayes treaty. Japan has been expected to put in a protest when the revision of the present treaty is undertaken, basing her demand on the ground that the clauses are an offence to Japanese pride. The indignation is inopportune, according to diplomats here and may hinder negotiations over the treaty, which is now pending. It is feared that the situation will be worse than it was when the California school controversy aroused so much It is believed that if the Hayes bill had not been introduced Japan would have brought up the question on her own volition to demand for her sub-
