

that the Dawsons have put theories into practice in their marriage vows having been given them, the simple publication of their intention to have been considered quite satisfactory the conventionalities. These people and their thoroughness in earnest, and they are in the right, but are likely to do with their simply inculcated.

seem capable of seeing any of their own theories, prominent of which is the putting upon vice. In desire to protect unacknowledgedly the increase of class, by the facilities they care. However, I do at the citizens of Boston for alarm, over the new laws of the state will probably discourage that young or any amount of opposition. I understand that one ready been made in the carry out the ideas of the in Kansas city having together as man and wife of the great originators y to discover that the awful Dawson of London on from the laws of the two being in direct other, and in spite of and appeals from meety both in the United d, the enthusiasts who a law were compelled to in able portion of time in institutions, where they care of without any

CRICKET BOOK.

North a stirring work in English game.

John's 'Jubilee Book of been published, and it John takes cricket seri- does not disdain to with an occasional observes: 'The plac- the losing of a seat in iction, it counts two on en said that 'Ranji,' a cat battling, so ex- session of supple agility for feline comparison for Ranjitsinhji play- like a cat watching a doesn't seem to have point of the game.

the book are vivid. the book is a batman, the ular of a batsman, the , just at the moment the other end is about ll. The rest of the e's words. There is a hollow in the turf a out of the crease, and, that, goodness knows may break either way or only, and then one e's head as well as rd rushes the ball and the dusty spot. The it is every inch of its and his nerves turn ches. For the tiniest e loses sight of it in that time he endures time of painful doubt It has taken an ugly stump. In the twink- will be crashing short time remains to which the honor of a of a batman depend. just a little closer to ight to be; there is a field. Forward goes e batman, down comes at strong sweep, and a yard or so out of point, who, accom- 'mid-off' race valiant y, because of course, e field, who ought to e sent behind the ar runs are scored,

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Watson, Peabody street, presented a pretty scene on evening lately, the occasion being the birthday of their little daughter Florrie. About forty children gathered to celebrate the event, and from 4 to 10 p. m. enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Music and other games were indulged in till supper was announced, and the little ones repaired to the dining room to do justice to the good things provided. The scene after supper was busy-like the, lawn in front of the house being lit up with Chinese lanterns and the children romped and played from house to lawn till it was nearly time to disperse. Before leaving for their homes ice cream was served. Among those present were, Misses Marion Peters, Pauline King, Royce Carter, Florrie Eastington, Grace Humphrey, Fannie Fotheringham, Helen Fotheringham, Alice Hatch, Margie Seaton, Daisy Clarke, Ethel Andrews, May Andrews, Ethel Smith, Lillian Clarke, Clara Hay, Susie Andrews, Jean Lovitt, Blinda McIntyre, Nellie McIntyre, Edith Doherty, Carrie McIntyre, Ethel Seely, Margie Seely, Rita Davis, Gladys Stammers, Annie Stammers, Kitty Higgins, Jessie Likely, Florrie Watson and Nan Watson, Mamma Robin Andrews, Colin Lovitt, Ralph Seely, Douglas Lovitt, Frank Hamu, Matthias Hamu, Harold Seely, Walter Seely, Vernon Hatch, Harry Doherty, Arthur Carter, Harold Dennis, Albert Hoar.

Miss Esther Collins arrived home on Monday from Queens county where she has been visiting for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Herbert Spence of Everett Mass. is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Label 213 Duke St.

Miss Jennie Hall of St. John is in Woodstock a guest of Mrs. A. D. Halyoke.

Mr. D. O. Clinch returned the first of the week from a visit to Hartford Conn.

Son F. MacNutt and Mrs. MacNutt of Manique P. E. I. are in the city for the exhibition and are guests of Mrs. F. S. MacNutt, Queen Square.

Rev T. Fotheringham returned from Toronto on Saturday.

Mr. G. L. T. Burham of Manchester, N. H. is spending a holiday in the city.

Mr. Waldo Skinner left this week for Boston and soon there will go to McGill to resume his studies.

Mrs. Henry MacNutt and Miss Jessie Miles left this week on a visit to Fredericton.

Mr. Hugh O'Neill of St. Andrews was here this week on route to Memramcook to resume his studies.

Mrs. James Rogers and Miss Annie Rogers left the first of the week on a visit to F. E. Island and Halifax.

Miss Emma Matthews of the North End has gone on a visit to New York.

Miss Viola Flanagan of Moncton is a guest of the Misses Cate of Carleton.

Mr. F. Bedell a former pupil of the Davenport school has gone to New York to continue his studies.

Mr. John McDonald Jr. left Saturday for Boston on a holiday trip.

Mr. Thomas Hawker son of Mr. W. H. Hawker left Thursday for Montreal to continue his studies in applied science.

Miss Blanche Glaser of Lincoln is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beer were here this week on their way home to Charlottetown P. E. I., from a trip to Scotland.

Auditor General Beck was a guest of R. W. Crookshank for a day or two this week.

Mrs. Mahony, formerly Miss Carleton of this city left for New York this week after a pleasant visit of some weeks to friends here.

Miss Addy arrived last Saturday from Newport R. I. to visit her parents Dr. and Mrs. Addy of Union street.

Miss Boddington and Miss Bertie Boddington returned this week from a two months visit to Sussex.

Mr. George D. Pope of the department of Interior Ottawa was in the city this week on his way back from Prince Edward Island to the capital.

Mrs. Albert S. Jones left Saturday last to visit her son Dr. L. B. Jones of New York.

Mr. F. W. Brock and Mr. A. C. Fairweather returned from a trip to England a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith of Shediac are in the city for the exhibition and will spend a week here.

Dr. Collier P. O. inspector arrived in the city this week.

Mr. Frank Duren of Banor Me., is spending a little while with friends.

Mr. Richard Dawson left for New York this week to visit his daughter for the next two or three weeks.

Miss Mary Stratton of Fredericton is paying a visit to the city.

Mrs. Richard Knox and children are visiting St. George friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Chipman were entertained by St. George friends last Monday.

Mr. J. B. Pascoe is here from Pettitcodiac on a visit to friends.

Mr. Joe Dunlop spent last Sunday in Pettitcodiac.

Mrs. W. J. Gregory is paying a short visit to her old home here.

Mrs. Luke Stewart was called from Fredericton on this week by the serious illness of Miss Knox.

Miss Fannie Foster is here from Fredericton on a visit to friends.

Mr. Isaac Burpee spent Sunday with Fredericton friends.

Miss Margaret McLeod who has been visiting her sister Mrs. McIntosh returned home this week.

Mrs. Alex. Gibson of Maryville and Mrs. J. B. Cotter spent last week in the city.

Miss Horrocks is a guest of Mrs. Hawthorn at the latter home in Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. George still retain possession of their cottage at the Bay Shore despite the fact that in the city the evenings are quite cool enough for wraps.

Mrs. Alfred Seely and Mrs. Mary Brown arrived from the western end this week to visit friends.

The Misses Annie and Cecil Fair are spending the week in the city.

Mr. Hans J. Logan the handsome and popular youth member from Cumberland county, Nova Scotia, was in the city this week to meet the Premier and visiting Cabinet Ministers, and to be present at the Exhibition opening.

Miss May Whipple of Fredericton is visiting city friends.

Miss Jane Hainsford arrived from the capital this week for a short stay in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Weddall are among the numerous visitors who are being warmly welcomed by old friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Susan Grimmer is here from St. Stephen on a visit to city friends.

Miss Bessie Foster is here on a visit to her sister Mrs. A. W. Reed of Prince William Street.

Lady Tilley is in St. Stephen on a visit to her mother Madame Chipman of the "Cedars."

Mrs. A. E. Neil and Mrs. J. C. Taylor are being entertained this week by Mrs. Charles W. King of Kingsville.

Miss Lily Miller left Wednesday morning on a trip to Boston and New York.

Miss Constance Vall left Wednesday for Waltham Mass. to enter the Waltham Hospital to take a course in training for future work.

Mrs. Fred L. Temple and child left this week to visit Mrs. Temple's parents at New York.

Mr. C. A. Bushnell of Duke street.

Mr. E. B. Clarke and Mrs. Charles of Halifax were in the city for a part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hagarty arrived from Halifax this week to attend the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Griffin of Boston paid a short visit to the city this week.

Mrs. D. Newcomb went last week to join her husband at their future home in Woodstock.

Misses Elida and Kathleen Bourne are here from Woodstock to attend the exhibition. Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher and Miss Fisher are also here for a few days.

Rev. J. J. Tensdale and Mrs. Tensdale were here for the opening of the exhibition. They returned to Fredericton on Wednesday evening.

About one hundred and fifty people went from the city on Wednesday afternoon to be present at the marriage of Miss Lydia Short, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Short of this city to Mr. Samuel McColgan of Somerville, Kings county. The services were held in the neat and commodious church at Shortland, the edifice being gaily decorated with ferns and flowers. Rev. Mr. Fenna performed the ceremony. Miss Nellie Short, sister of the bride, and her two cousins, Misses Maggie and Annie Boulton—dressed in pale blue nuns' veiling, trimmed with white lace and blue ribbons, wearing wreaths and carrying beautiful bouquets. Mr. Thomas Short, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The hymn "The voice that breathed o'er Eden" was prettily rendered, and after the happy couple received the congratulations of the entire congregation, the party repaired to Shortland Villa, where a sumptuous repast was partaken of. The bride's present from the groom was a handsome gold chain, a cheque from her father of a goodly sum, and an organ from her mother. The gift of the groom to the bride was a handsome pin set with brilliant stones. The presents were rare and costly and very beautiful. Mr. Short's grounds were gaily decorated with flags and streamers. Mrs. McColgan will receive on Thursday and Friday of next week at No. 20 Peters street.

From Westfield comes the following budget of bright news; the summer residents of that charming resort are loth to turn their backs upon it and are endeavoring to make the most of the beautiful weather which has prevailed during the month.

"Westfield has been rather quiet this week on account of the exhibition in St. John. On Monday and Tuesday our little village seemed deserted, for every one who could get away took the opportunity. Though of course it was more the desire of the people to pay their respects to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, G. C. M. G. our Prime Minister than to see the fair.

Mr. Thos. Rankine, Mr. Wm. S. Fielding, wife of the Finance Minister, Miss Zella and family, and Misses E. Allen, L. Robertson and G. Fisher, were guests of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Canada's premier, from St. John to Westfield in his private car. Four Cabinet Ministers were among the party.

Miss K. Robertson is the guest of Mrs. W. Watson Allen of "Kenwood."

Mrs. A. W. Bale of Halifax and Mrs. B. J. Roberts of Brooklyn N. Y., are visiting their sister Mrs. Warren Fairweather.

Mr. Harold Sears was the guest of Mr. Douglas McLaughlin, Tuesday.

The St. James church social which was held on the city after spending a very pleasant summer at "Hill Side cottage." We trust to see our popular friend again next season.

Miss Murray Inches of "Silvanacra" left Tuesday to resume her studies at Windsor.

Mrs. Wm. A. Simonds and family have returned to the city after spending a very pleasant summer at "Hill Side cottage." We trust to see our popular friend again next season.

Little Daisy Sears was very cordially received by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and received a kiss from that statesman when she presented him a bouquet of roses on his way from St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin of "Linden Villa," Woodmans Pt. have returned from a trip to Toronto.

Mrs. Will Starr's new house is completed but he will not occupy it this fall. It is a regular summer house just the right kind for a family to have a good time in during the summer months.

Mrs. Thos. Rankine had a miraculous escape from death recently, she was coming to the city on the C. P. R. and was being helped on the train, while in motion by a postman, when in some way they both slipped and Mrs. Rankine fell between the train and platform, she escaped unhurt but was badly shaken up.

Mr. A. H. Warwick and family returned to the city Tuesday after spending a very pleasant summer at their country home.

Mr. Geo. Watrous spent Sunday with his son Mr. Guy W. Watrous in St. John.

Mrs. Broad who has been visiting her brother Mr. Thomas Rankin at Iverlochy, has returned home.

Mr. John Wilmet and family who have been spending the summer at their residence Woodmans Point returned to Carleton on Monday.

Mr. Edward Sears of the White house spent Sunday with his wife Mrs. Edward Sears of Kingston, Ont., at Loch Lomond. Mr. E. Sears left on Wednesday via the C. P. R. for home.

Mr. Percy Sutherland and Mr. Wm. Rankin and Westfield a delightful place to spend the Sundays. Master Kenneth Patterson son of E. B. Patterson of Kinneswood left recently to attend the Rotheray school.

Miss Eda Ballantine is visiting friends in St. John.

Mrs. George Watrous spent Wednesday with friends at Westford.

Mrs. E. B. Patterson's mother Mrs. Philip Nee of Indian town and her sister Mrs. C. F. Woodman spent Wednesday with her at Kinneswood.

WELCOME

TRADE MARK

SOAP

All Housekeepers SHOULD USE Welcome SOAP.

Have you had a FREE GUESS at the MISSING WORD yet? Don't fail to visit the

Welcome Soap Booth

AT THE EXHIBITION

and try for the missing word.

$25 Cash Prizes

Welcome Soap Co. Missing Word Contest

If Horses could talk...

what a hum there would be on the streets about the wonderful way in which cures Scratches, Galls and Sores.

Quickheal

Every man who owns a horse should try it.

SOLD EVERYWHERE

The Monarch.....

Economic Boiler

IS PORTABLE

SAVES FUEL

ROBB ENGINEERING CO., LIMITED, AMHERST, N. S.

(Continued on Business Page.)

Unbranded Made, No-secured, Registered, 17 Waterloo.