AFRICAN VETERANS GOT UNEXPECTED WEALTH

Seventeen South African veterans are going about with an average of some $600 ach in their possession more than they had any right to expect. This good fortune has come to them through the intervention of Captain Fred Jones, assisted by a train of careless or irregular business transactions.

careless or irregular business transactions.

Among the numerous persons lately engaged in the purchase of South African veteran land claims was a small and active syndicate which picked up seventeen rights at from $50 to $300 each. They made arrangements to sell to a land dealer in Calgary at $850 each. The transaction was practically completed, when the time came for the transmission of the money from the Calgary man to the syndicate.

At this stage a mistake occurred whereby the western purchasers were

DREDGES AND TWENTY-FIVE SCHOONER CANDIDATES BREAK AWAY CONFIRMED

His Lordship Bishop Richardson conducted confirmation service in St. Luke's Anglican church last evening. Twenty-five candidates in all were confirmed, eleven of whom were men and boys and fourteen girls and women. A large congregation attended and listened with interest to the Bishop's confirmation address.

A feature of the service was the number of grown up men and women among the candidates.

On Sunday Bishop Richardson will conduct confirmation service in Trinity church in the morning, and in St. Mary's in the evening.

BY KETCHELL

National Athletic Club, New York, Mar. 28—Not since the repeal of the Horton law, which stopped the big datic bouts in this city, has such a sax and furious contest been seen here in the squared circle as that tonight, in which Stanley Ketchell, the middleweight champion, defeated Jack OBrien, of Philadelphia, at the National A.C. Many thought that O'Brien would do some stalling in this fight, but everybody who saw the fight was agreeably surprised as it was a hot bout from start to finish.

In the final round O'Brien was OF DOCKS HERE Cassandra, who was drowned by falling between the wharf and the steamer's side, will be buried from the Seamer's Mission this afternoon. He was 26 years of age, and a native of Scotland. This was his amittee of Scotland.
