The Extra of the Gazette will be issued to night, containing some of the appointments suppressed from Saturday's Gazette. Among them are the Lieut. Governors and two Judges.

It is well understood that the Government have had to back down in their pretensions presented to His Excellency against the confirmation of them.

The Extra also contains the appointment of the Collector of Kingston, which it is well understood Cartwright dare not refuse to confirm in view of his coming election. It does not contain a majority of the appointments made in Prince Edward Island, though even Laird could not go as far as to suppress all of them, fearing the consequences upon himself at his coming contest. Laird leaves to-morrow for the Island, and it is understood writs have been forwarded to-day.

There are several other appointments confirmed, which will be made public to-morrow. nev 1 GEO, STEWART, Jung At Liverpool, 6th inst. bark James Kenway, McDonald from New, York,

HALL & FAIRWEATHER. 2 Market Squ man, and that his election cost him $1900.

Ross, Minister of Militia, is very uneasy about his prospects for Victoria. It is generally understood he cannot be returned, and in order to keep another gentleman from Cape Breton quiet, it is very freely stated in Ministerial circles that he will retire before Nomination Day and accept the Inspectorship of Customs for Nova Scotia, and that Samuel Macdonnell has been promised the seat. The latter, though somewhat modified by the promise, has not much faith in them, and freely states that unless the pledge is carried out he will be in opposition on the meeting of Parliament.

The confirmation of the Lieut.-Governors' appointments is due to the fears that Burpee had of the effect of such an outrage upon Mr. Tilley's friends, who are [have been] his principal supporters.

Crawford's appointment would have been cancelled but for the fear of offending the Archbishop of Toronto, who is anxious that it should be confirmed.
