

in possession, remainder, reversion or expectancy of the party against whom such judgment was rendered, as would in England be bound by a judgment of any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, whereof 5 and with regard to which a minute or memorandum had been left with and entered by the Senior Master of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, in the manner required by the Act of the Parliament of the United 10 Kingdom passed in the Session held in the first and second years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, "An Act for abolishing 15 "arrest on mesne process in Civil Actions, except in certain cases; for extending the 15 "remedies of Creditors against the property of debtors; and for amending the Laws for the relief of insolvent debtors in England," and should and shall entitle the judgment creditor to the like remedies, subject to the 20 like provisions, as the judgment creditor in England would have under the provisions of the Act last cited, subject always to the proviso contained in the said thirteenth 25 section of the said Provincial Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to judgments registered under the said Provincial Act, the provisions of any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom other than that hereinbe- 30 fore cited.

Imperial Act,
1 and 2 Vict.,
c. 110, cited.

Proviso.