Management of affairs.

3. The affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed by such officers and committees, and under such restrictions as touching the powers and duties of such officers and committees, as by by-laws in that behalf, the Corporation may, from time to time, ordain; and the 10 Corporation may assign to any of such officers such remuneration as they deem requisite.

By-laws of Corporation.

4. The Corporation may make such by-laws, not contrary to law, as they shall deem expedient for the administration and government of the Corporation and of such Asylum or other charitable institution as they 15 shall maintain; and may repeal or amend the same, from time to time, observing always, however, such formalities as by such by-laws may be prescribed to that end, and generally shall have all the corporate powers necessary to the ends of this Act.

Existing by-laws of Association.

5. The by-laws of the said Association, not being contrary to law, 20 shall be the by-laws of the Corporation hereby constituted, until they shall be repealed or altered as aforesaid.

Present officers.

6. Until others shall be elected according to the by-laws of the Corporation, the present officers of the Association shall be those of the 25 Corporation.

Recovery of subscriptions, penalties, &c.

7. All subscriptions and all penalties due to the Corporation under any by-law, may be recovered by suit in the name of the Corporation; but any member may withdraw therefrom at any time, on payment of all amounts by him due to the Corporation, inclusive of his subscription for 30 the year then current.

Competency of witnesses.

8. No person otherwise competent to be a witness in any suit or prosecution in which the Corporation may be engaged shall be deemed incompetent to be such witness, by reason of his being or having been a member or officer of the Corporation.

Report to Legislature.

9. The Corporation shall, at all times when thereunto required by 35 the Governor, or by either Branch of the Legislature, make a full return of their property, real and personal, and of their receipts and expenditure for each period, and with such detail and other information as the Governor or either Branch of the Legislature may require.

Public Act.

10. This Act shall be deemed a Public Act.
