

Woodcarver winner with girl in a mini

Each year just before the Exhibition is opened to the public there are many days spent by officials judging the hundreds of art and craft entries sent in from all over Canada.

This year as well as last year there was an entry in the woodcarving exhibits from Mr. R. Ball of Daimler Rd. in Clarkson. When judging was completed Mr. Ball was pleased to hear that his entry, a girl wearing a mini skirt, had been awarded second prize. Mr. Ball does his woodcarving as a hobby and last year won first prize for his entry.

BROWSING

Do you ever have spare time in the afternoons and want something to do to fill in the time? A pleasant way to pass part of your afternoon is to browse around Heritage House on Lakeshore Rd. in Clarkson, just a short distance before the Lakeshore Clarkson Rd intersection. It is hard to miss because it is a reconstructed old building.

Inside there are many interesting pieces of goods for sale and if you wander upstairs it will be hard to resist the many varieties of old fashioned candy displayed in glass jars. On leaving the old beamed building I am sure you will have thought your outing worthwhile.
