Edmonton, Alberta.	25 Mar./44	(Cont'd)	Drafts of graduates left for advanced stages of training and preparations made for intake of Course No. 101. Work on the new canteen building is progressing steadily, and it should be completed by 15th April if not held up by heating, which contract has not yet been let. The cadet system, which has functioned smoothly during the past two months for graduates, is being extended effective 27th March in modified form, to the current courses.
	26 Mar./44	Sunday	Church Parade held at usual hour for personnel of No. 1 Squadron and also Course No. 34, W.E.T.P. Trainees.
	27 Mar./44	Monday	Advice received from No. 4 T.C.H.Q. that heating contract for the new canteen building has now been let. The C.O. addressed new intake, Course No. 101, comprising one officer and 54 other ranks. The "cadet" system was today extended to include flights on Course. Cadet airmen now function on a daily roster on all parades for O.C. Squadron, Flight Commanders and Flight N.C.O.s. The C.O. was delighted with the seriousness with which the trainees assumed their duties. Special arm bands are in use, similar to the ones originally secured for the graduate Squadrons.
	28 Mar./44	Tuesday	Effective this week the main Wing Parades are now held in the morning, combined with Ensign Hoisting Ceremony. Final examinations are being concluded for Course No. 97. S/O T. E. Smallwood (V.30377) (Adm.) was here today from No. 4 T.C.H.Q. with respect to Aircraft Recognition, and appeared quite pleased with the A/C/R/ Section.
	29 Mar./44	Wednesday	C.O.'s Parade and Inspection held at 0800 hours, following which some movements of Wing Drill were executed. Cadet officers made quite a creditable showing. F/O L. E. Kelly (J.17334), returned from Overseas for Pilot training and presently on Course here, was presented with his Operational Wings by the Commanding Officer on the C.O.'s Parade. G/C C. A. Davidson, Chief Works Officer from No. 4 T.C.H.Q. was a visitor on the Station today and had lunch with the Commanding Officer.
	30 Mar./44	Thursday	S/O M. S. Clark (V.30105), Command Messing Officer, visited the Station and, in company with the C.O., called on Mr. A. West, Bursar, at the University of Alberta, with respect to messing arrangements. Personnel of Course No. 98 today concluded their final examination in Navigation. The Commanding Officer was a guest in the late afternoon at a reception held by Brigadier L. D. Worsham, Commanding General of the Northwest Service Command, U.S. Army.
	31 Mar./44	Friday	The Commanding Officer is much concerned over the Course failure of three trainee officers who were sent back from Overseas for pilot training. In part it can be attributed to the unfortunate attitude	[Handwritten signature]
