

- Canada, Confederate agents in, 126-27
- Chancellorsville, 89
- Charleston, 15 et seq., 97
- Charleston Courier, 18, 21-22, 61-62, 94, 95, 97
- Charleston Mercury, describes siege of Sumter, 20; opposes Administration, 33, 39, 43, 61-62, 95, 151, 152, 154; on conscription, 64; on Seddon's appointment, 79; on Impressment Act, 80; on Tax Act, 81; on suspension of habeas corpus, 82-83, 85-86; issue of conduct of war, 89, 90; account of President's visit to Charleston, 97; on peace, 175, 180; doubts upper South, 196; on negro soldiers, 196
- Chattanooga, 113
- Chestnut, James, 18 (note)
- Chevalier, Michel, 138
- Chickamauga campaign, 96, 113
- Clay, C. C., 127
- Cobb, Howell, 146, 154-55
- Cold Harbor, 126
- Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, 152-53
- "Confederate Societies," 95
- Confederate States, provisional government organized, 10-11; status of belligerent accorded by England, 35; clash with state authority, 38-40; archives threatened, 42; period of elation, 43-44; foreign affairs, 46 et seq.; 130 et seq.; secrecy of government, 59, 60, 65, 66; divided into separate units, 74; impotence of government, 160; anti-war factions in, 165-167; war ended, 202; see also Davis, South
- Congress, Confederate, 9-11
- Congress, U. S., House committee of thirty-three, 2, 13
- Conscription, adopted, 37-38; constitutionality attacked, 39; Pollard's criticism of enforcement, 64; correspondence of Davis and Brown on, 65-66; Rhett's opinion of, 73; opposition to, 75-77; exemptions, 102, 123-24; hiring of substitutes, 103; failure of State and Confederate governments to cooperate, 116, 151; age limits, 122-23
- Constitution, Confederate, 10-11
- Corinth, 53
- Cotton, to solve financial problem, 45-46; necessary to English, 46; effect of blockade, 51-57; powerless to coerce England, 56
- Danville, Confederate capital, 200
- Davis, Jefferson, signs To Our Constituents, 3; elected President in provisional Government, 11; as President, 15, 24 et seq.; from Mississippi, 29; born in Kentucky, 30; early life, 31-32; personal characteristics, 32; military activities, 33; criticism of, 33-34, 43, 61-65, 89-90, 159-60, 175; President at first regular election, 34; inauguration, 35-36; message to Congress (1862), 36; proposes conscription, 37; vetoes Texas Regiment Bill, 38; clash with state authority, 38-40; use of martial law, 40-42; at height of powers, 43; shortcomings, 57-69; relations with Lee, 68; Cabinet, 69; personal loyalty, 70; statecraft, 71; endorses "Confederate Societies," 95; journeys during Administration, 96-97; message to Congress (1863), 114; message to Congress (1864), 119-20; in Georgia, 144, 148-49; forced to