

and worthy father and guide amongst us. And now when you are honored by your brethren we also join with them in offering you our affection and our earnest desire that the sun of your calm evening may return to its setting with slow and gentle pace.

It is our prayer that you may enjoy the gracious peace of God in full measure, to the end of your days, that the joy of the Holy Spirit may refresh your soul while you linger on the shore of time, and that the words of Israel's royal minstrel may be fulfilled to you:—

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

To shew that the Lord is upright: He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

KNOX COLLEGE.

Dr. Carmichael was a member of the Examining Board of Knox College for many years, his knowledge of Hebrew giving him exceptional advantages as an examiner, and to this work he gladly gave his time and scholarship. Principal Gandier spoke for Knox College as follows:—

MR. Moderator and Friends:—I could wish that those who planned the programme to-day, had given me some intimation that I would be called upon to represent Knox College: for on so important an occasion, one would like to speak some word worthy of him whom we delight to honor.

As we came across the beautiful country this morning, the words of our Lord came to my mind,—“Other men labored and ye have entered into their labors.” I thought of the marvellous changes that have come within the lifetime of men and women now living. We have only to go back to the time when Dr. Car-
