

REVOCATION:—A deed must stand unrevoked and good and valid in law until revoked in the presence of all the parties thereto. (Sykes, applt, and Shaw et al., respdts., Q. B.).....	141
SAISIE ARRÊT:— Vide PRACTICE.
“ :—In the case of a, before judgment, the words “ may be deprived of his remedy and may lose his debt and sustain damage, ” in the affidavit, are not sufficient to justify the issuing of the writ. (Ferres vs. Ruther- ford et al., and The Montreal and Champlain R. R. Co., T. S., S. C.)... 102	102
“ :—In the case of a, en main tierce , where the seizure in the hands of the tiers saisi is effected corporeally , the seizure is null, but an interven- ing party cannot, by motion made immediately after he is allowed to intervene, and before any issue is joined on the intervention, claim the quashing of the seizure. (Fleck, applt., and Brown, respdt., Q. B.) 216	216
SAISIE CONSERVATOIRE:— Vide PRACTICE.
SAISIE GAGSIE:—The declaration in a case commenced by, must be either served within the ordinary delays prescribed for writs of summons, or be left at the office of the Clerk of the Court within the delay prescribed by the Statute. (Ward vs. Cousine, C. C.).....	28
SECURITY:— Vide WAREHOUSEMAN.
“ :—In the case of a joint and several, the creditor is not bound to use diligence against the principal debtor. (Quinn vs. Edson, S. C.).....	101
SECURITY FOR COSTS:—Where the plaintiff has left the country subsequent to the institution of an action, security for costs may be demanded although it be shown, by affidavits, that he has a place of business, containing valuable stock, and a domicile in this city, and that his absence was believed to be only temporary, namely, about three months. (Davis vs. Jacobs, C. C.).....	25
SEIGNIORIAL RENT:— Vide CADASTRE and CONSTITUTED RENT.
SEPARATION DE BIENS:— Vide MARRIED WOMAN.
“ DE CORPS ET DE BIENS:—Where in an action of, an order for alimentary allowance has been granted during the pendency of the suit, and the parties become reconciled, the order lapses although the parties again separate. (Reid vs. Robinson and Robinson, oppt., S. C.).....	103
SERVITUDE:— Vide COUPE DE BOIS.
STOLEN PROPERTY:— Vide REVENDICATION.
SURETY:—A, has a right of action against the principle debtor, after the term of credit has expired, to compel him to produce receipts from the credi- tor, or pay him (the surety) the amount for which such surety is responsible to the creditor. (McKinnon vs. Cowan, C. C.).....	175
TRANSFER:—An action based on a deed of, without allegation of signification, will be dismissed on demurrer. (Mignot vs. Reeds, C. C.).....	27
“ :—A cessionnaire may execute a judgment transferred to him, in the name of the cédant , although no special authority to do so be conferred by the deed of assignment. Bergevin dit Langevin et al. vs. Persillier dit Lachapelle, et vir, and the same oppts., et Meloche int. party, S. O....	78
“ :—While an action upon a transfer not signified may be maintained against the original debtor, an hypothecary action against a tiers détenteur upon such transfer cannot be maintained, without previous signification of the transfer upon the debtor. (Aylwin, applt., and Judah, respdt., Q. B.).....	179