CANADIAN FIRE RECORD.

CORNWALL, ONT.—Iron Block on Pitt Street, owned by estate of late Col. R. R. McLennan, gutted, September 28. Occupied on the ground floor by three stores: Donihce's meat market, insured in the Phenix; Thomas & Co., confectioners, no insurance; and Fawkes & Co., grocers, insured in the London Mutual. The upper story was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Vallance; Mrs. Rose, an aged lady Mrs. John Sullivan, a widow; Maggie Thomas, an Assyrian, and Mike Boucher, an Assyrian. No insurance carried by these tenants. Loss, $8000.

The C.P.R. is spending in the West on extensions, terminals, and double-tracking as much as, if not more than the original cost of first construction.—
Mr. H. S. Holt.

Mr. T. B. Macaulay, managing director of the Sun Life of Canada, was among those present at the Atlantic City convention of the National Life Underwriters' Association.

The first of several contemplated Canadian municipal issues in London is Ottawa's new loan of £180,000 4½ per cent. debentures at 98½. The debentures are repayable at par by series between 1932 and 1953.
